

This is the
- Solemnity of
Corpus Christi,
the Body and Blood
of Jesus Christ!
The source and
summit of our Faith!
Bread of Angels!
Bread from Heaven!
Bread of Life!
Cup of Blessing!
Hidden God!
Hidden Savior!
Bond of Love!
Lamb of God!
Mystery of Faith!
Guest to our hearts!
-have mercy on us!

How great a gift that has been given to us! Not merely a symbol or something to remember the events of the Last Supper by. Eucharist IS the living Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Redeemer. It is a mystery of pure love— the desire of Jesus to be with us and our desire to be with Him. This is the Bread that has come down from Heaven! This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world! How happy are we to receive Him in to our hearts.

Come Lord Jesus, come and remain with me forever. You are the Bread of Life, the Cup of Blessing, the Living Son of the Father, the First to rise from the Dead, the source of life and the promise of eternity!

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless Glory!

Blessings on our First Communicants!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It is no wonder that followers of Christ are called the Body of Christ. After all, sharing in the same spiritual food and sacred meal, they become what they eat and reveal the Divine Image. There is so much power for healing in the community of believers. Through the Eucharist, Christ becomes as present in those who have partaken of his Body and Blood as he has the elements themselves. The very presence of God touches the depths of the human soul and visits a part of us that no human being can ever hope to explore. We are God's. The sacred Eucharistic meal is a celebration of intimacy, the reunion of two loves in constant search of and longing for the other.

The community of believers receives the power and the presence to touch and heal in the name of the One they have welcomed within. It is now within their grasp to change the way life is lived and to more intentionally put into practice the Beatitudes that the Divine Guest has revealed. We are asked to be like Christ and work to create a world of sufficiency, where the greed of some no longer creates the want of others but where all of God's children can find a home and a place at the table of life. The One who makes a home within calls us to live a life that transforms. We are changed ourselves and now become agents of change for others. We are the Body of Christ. God is with us. We have been nourished.

Sadly, many are afraid to try. We know what we are called to do, but we struggle with feelings of doubt as to whether God really is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do our systems have to change? Is it possible that we somehow missed the mark when we put all of our social networks in place and established the business of our lives? Perhaps we have to radically rethink our approach and that can scare us. We might have to give something up or change, and we don't want to. As long as want, injustice, division, prejudice, and scarcity still exist, there is tremendous work for the Body of Christ.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Mary and the Saints

Question:

Why do Catholics pray to Mary and the saints?

Answer:

One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in “the communion of saints.” The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death.

And so from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us.

When we think of Mary and the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support.

Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

They recognized him in the breaking of bread. This was the amazing revelation or epiphany that occurred on the Road to Emmaus. Bread that had been transformed into the Body of Christ opened the eyes of the disciples and showed them who was really with them. Their hearts were burning. Sometimes we struggle with our belief in the Eucharist because we make it too much of an intellectual challenge. If God’s divinity was wed to humanity in the incarnation of Christ, then why is it not possible for God to take simple elements of bread and wine and transform them into his Body and Blood? Affirm your faith today that the Eucharist you receive is God Himself. Become what you eat and allow God to embrace your soul and touch that part of you that no one else can touch.

“Out of the darkness of my life,
so much frustrated, I put before
you the one great thing to love
on earth: the Blessed Sacrament ... There you will find romance, glory, honor,
fidelity, and the true way of all
your loves upon earth.”

— [J.R.R. Tolkien, The Letters of
J.R.R. Tolkien](#)

Dear Parish Family,

One of my very favorite quotes is from J. R. R. Tolkien, the great Catholic author of The Lord of the Rings, The Hobbit, The Silmarillion, and other masterpieces: “Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament ... There you will find romance, glory, honor, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves upon earth.”

This quote comes from a letter written to one of his sons. That is noteworthy as ‘the Blessed Sacrament’ is a treasure handed on from father to son. Tolkien had a profound devotion to Eucharist! He attended daily Mass frequently, went to confession regularly, trusted in his daily prayers and in the Church Magisterium. All this is amazingly beautiful as he was born into a Protestant Family and converted as a result of his mother becoming Catholic.

The mind and imagination, the talent and the genius of Tolkien was obviously affected by his personal devotion and love of Christ. This is evidenced in so many of his writings and letters. I mention all of this because a man of such brilliance embraced the faith and treasured it though he was revered as a great and renowned and luminous talent of his time. What a wonderful witness that is! What a vivid reminder it is for me and for us: amid darkness and success we turn to the foundation of our faith and the marvelous, wonderful, mysterious gift of Eucharist. That God would become man—that He would leave us His very presence in Eucharist is indeed a gift and treasure we too can hand on to sons and daughters and to the generations that follow us. Our love and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament is a witness and testimony to our reliance on the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ! He is the Bread of angels and the Bread that has come down from heaven! So in the words of J.R.R. Tolkien, “I put before you the one great thing to love on earth:

the Blessed Sacrament!

The next Sanctuary Candle will be lit for the intentions of the Cleveland Police Officers from SWAT—may they heal from their accident and know peace.

O Sacrament most Holy!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Heart of Stewardship

What else is there to give when one has already given away one's body and one's life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all one had has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his Passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship.

Then, you must ask yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

Happy 41st Anniversary to the Shepherd of the Flock at St. Colette.

We are a little late. Fr. Krizner's anniversary was June 9th.

The Daughters of St. Colette

We meet at 11:00am on Thursdays at Wayside Shrine to say the Rosary together at the statue of the Blessed Virgin. We are able to keep social distance by bringing our own chairs. This is our chance to enjoy the outdoors, see one another, and pray together, without getting too close. Everyone is welcome and there is plenty of room. Please join us!

"Come as a stranger, leave as a friend."

A warm Welcome to our Parish!
