

Alleluia!

He is not here! He is Risen!

HAPPY EASTER

From All of us! Easter Blessings in abundance!!
May the Risen Lord, Jesus the Christ, be present in your hearts and in your homes. Regardless of the happenings in the world the reality remains true for us today and every day: He is risen from the dead—just as He promised!
Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our world wants us to believe that life is only what we make of it. Today, we realize how untrue that is. Life is ultimately about what God makes of it, and the resurrection of Jesus reveals this. Alleluia, Christ is risen! Who do you understand yourself to be? What we did yesterday, are doing today, and may do tomorrow pretty much determine how we perceive ourselves. We even perceive Jesus this way in limiting our vision of him to his earthly accomplishments. But, we know through today's triumphant celebration that Christ is much more than his earthly legacy. The transfigured and resurrected Christ is the beginning, the end, and the fulfillment of all things and every person. All that Jesus did stands in second place to who we now know him to be. Do we realize that this will be our journey too? Christ is risen. Alleluia, alleluia!

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday. As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying “so what” or “alleluia”? For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of “so what.” Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don't sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and “find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The “so what” response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn't important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn't impress us or matter all that much. It's all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant “tomorrow” that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath. When that happens, will we want to be thinking “so what?” or “alleluia”?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn't need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!

Dear Parish Family-

An Easter that we anticipated has still come into the midst of the tragedy that has struck our world. As I have mentioned before somewhere in all of this is an Alleluia! - and today is the day to celebrate Alleluia! For the next 50 days the Church will celebrate Easter and we will be a part of that world-wide celebration in heart and spirit. How wonderful that we can hold fast to the promise He has made, 'on the third day the Son of Man will rise from the dead'. He has Risen and everything has changed because it is touched by the miracle of the Resurrection.

Yes these have been very difficult days and we have had to go into the heart of hope itself! But remember that not only is Christ Risen but He is present! HE is present to each and every one of us in ways that go far beyond our imaginings. That is the source of the hope that we hold on too... the very heart of our faith which provides for us a rock of strength and trust!

Remember that Easter Sunday Night the Lord appeared to the apostles as they were locked in the upper room! On Easter Day the Lord walked with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus! The entire day is filled with the marvels of the Risen Lord. Easter is NOT just a morning event—it is a day long—in fact a 50 day event! Celebrate the presence of JESUS—risen, indeed!

We have missed all of you! It will be a grand celebration when we are finally permitted to come together for Mass. I assure you that Lily and Grace are absolutely confused as to why the Church is empty!!! Gracie has no one to bark at and Lily sits in the dog-yard waiting for cars to pass by. The Rabbit, Cotton, has obviously been VERY busy –as it is Easter!!!

HAPPY EASTER!

The Church will be open on EASTER SUNDAY from 2 to 7 p.m. Please remain 6 feet apart from all others. There is a hand sanitizer at each entrance to use before and after your private visit. There is no service or liturgy –private personal prayer only.

Come to Christ

Life is perhaps God's greatest gift to each of us. Without life, we would be unable to experience all the wonder of this world, the love of family and friends, and the joy that comes from using our talents and skills. Life itself is more profound a gift than we can even truly contemplate.

On Easter, we celebrate life. For on this day, Jesus Christ conquered death and gave to us the chance for a life eternal. The wonder, love, and joy of this world does not have to end. Through a life in Jesus Christ, these emotions are heightened, and we find even greater fulfillment in this world.

Maybe this Easter you are finding yourself open to taking a next step in your relationship with Jesus. This could be the moment you decide to follow Him more closely and take seriously all that he has given you. If so, welcome to the journey, where there are many other disciples on that same path who can help show you the way and share their stories. If not, hopefully it doesn't take a whole year for this possibility to be considered again. Jesus is alive and waiting to get closer to you. May this Easter season find you and Our Lord getting to know one another in a whole new way.

Happy Easter!

A warm Welcome to our Parish!

Remembering with Love....

Our loving prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to the family of Robert Fertal, Sr., (father of Robert Fertal, Jr.) who was called to his Eternal reward. Please pray for him and all the faithful departed.

Live in Light & Peace!

GratITUDE to those who assisted in the distribution of palms last Palm Sunday. In the midst of a chilling wind they stood firm in the ministry of greeting and handing blessed palms. Thank You! To Lisa and Sara—thank you for organizing and setting this up for us, Thank you to Rob Saunders and to Sara for working so hard to video the Masses for Holy Week and Easter—which were made visible on Face Book and our Web Site through Sabrina! THANK YOU ALL!

Please pray for those serving in the Military
