

'the Eucharist is my highway to heaven'

Venerable Carlo Acutis
called to eternity at age 15– in 2006–
To be Beatified October 10, 2020 in Assisi, Italy

Someone we should know~

In October this 15 year old will be beatified in Assisi, Italy. Venerable Carlo Acutis.... "to always be close to Jesus that is my life plan."

Carlos was born in London but grew up in Milan, Italy. From a very early age he had a great devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and tried to attend Mass every day. At first his parents were surprised by such devotion but eventually began attending Mass with their young child. He referred to the Eucharist as 'his highway to heaven.'

Before or after Mass he would spend time before the Blessed Sacrament in prayer. He also had a deep devotion to the Blessed Mother often praying the Rosary.

Carlo is recognized for building a website that documents and catalogs Eucharistic miracles from around the world. He was a self-taught programmer using an old family computer. He began cataloging miracles of the Eucharist at 11 years old. He started his website in 2005 after he learned that he had leukemia. He said, "I offer all the suffering I will have to suffer for the Lord, for the Pope, and the Church." He died October 12, 2012.

Carlo was an ordinary, fun loving but caring young boy who had an extraordinary devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. So devoted was he that it was his aim and wish to share that devotion with the world. This he did through the internet and his website. He said, "The more we receive Eucharist, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have foretaste of heaven."

Pope Francis noted Carlo for knowing how to use communication technology to communicate values and beauty and to transmit the Gospel. If you wish to learn more about Carlo there are several websites on his cause including his own website. - Fr. Krizner

In October he will be Blessed Carlo Acutis!

Carlo's website is www.miracolieucaaristici.org

“Carlo Acutis remains an inspiration, especially to teenagers who aren't sure whether they could be both holy and 'normal' and individually unique. "Everyone is born as an original," Carlo said, "but many die as photocopies." To die as an "original," he maintained, was to be guided by Christ, and to look at Him constantly. "Our aim has to be the infinite and not the finite. The Infinite is our homeland. We have always been expected in Heaven." -St. Anthony Messenger

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As much as some folks may not want to admit it, we all want to be healed. Human beings suffer physically, mentally, socially, and spiritually. There are many wounds. Of all of the maladies that can afflict us, the ones that require the greatest attention are of a spiritual nature. What can happen if we are healed inwardly, brought back to center, and restored in our relationships, especially in our relationship with God? We will find the courage, strength, conviction, and hope needed to deal with the more tangible struggles that may not find an easy remedy. Inner strength, gained by persistent faith, is what allows strong, determined, and courageous people to overcome incredible challenges and hurdles. Be persistent in your faith, and seek the inner spiritual healing that you so desperately desire and need.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, “I’m tired of struggling with this cold, I can’t wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better.” Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

Dear Parish Family,

So often when we think of the Saints we may think of adults or elderly people who achieved great heights of sanctity in their lives. But there are numerous young people who have been beatified and canonized that we too often do not know about.

For instance -

Blessed Pier Giorgio was beatified in 1990. He had exhausted his life for the poor with a tremendous devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. It was said the poor and the suffering were his masters and the little he had he gave to others. And how ordinary of a young man was he?

“Like his father, he was strongly anti-Fascist and did nothing to hide his political views. He physically defended the faith at times involved in fights, first with anticlerical Communists and later with Fascists. Participating in a Church-organized demonstration in Rome on one occasion, he stood up to police violence and rallied the other young people by grabbing the group’s banner, which the royal guards had knocked out of another student’s hands. Pier Giorgio held it even higher, while using the banner’s pole to fend off the blows of the guards..” frassatiusa.org

More familiar is St. Domonic Savio was canonized in 1954—he was 14 years old. Saints Francisco and Jacinta were ages 10 and 9 respectively. Canonized May 2017 St. Therese the Little Flower was only 24 when she died. Blessed Chiara Luce Badano died in 1990 with her final words, “Be happy, because I am” And on and on the list goes....

In the midst of a world turned upside down there is goodness—sometimes whispered (as in Last week’s homily) not shouted, not publicly demonstrated, not wrapped in pride...just simple, gentle goodness born from an extraordinary love for God, the Church and others. God alone knows how many young people have given their lives for the faith in war-torn countries where Christianity is suppressed. There are saints all around us—be certain of that! Find solace and comfort when the Church is suffering, even here in America! For that reason I wanted to introduce you to Carlo Acutis—as we look forward to his beatification in October.

We learn so much from one another—including matters of faith and love. The young have much to teach us if we listen closely.

May the Saints of God intercede for us and bring us the peace of Christ Jesus and the love that brought Him to the cross at the age of 33!

Blessings!

PSCF PARISH SCHOOL OF CATHOLIC FAITH FORMATION

As fall is drawing near we are preparing to welcome our children back to our PSCF program. Please know that we have taken every precaution to welcome your children back safely. For those of you who are not ready to send your children back, we will be offering a homeschooling option.

If you have been registered in the past and did not receive a letter from Fr. Krizner on our plans for this fall, or if you are registering your children for the first time, please go to our website. On the homepage go under Faith Formation and then click on the PSCF tab. On this page families registering for the first time should fill out the registration form at the bottom of the page. ALL FAMILIES NEED TO READ THE LETTER FROM FATHER KRIZNER AND THEN FILL OUT THE SIMPLE INTENT FORM SO WE UNDERSTAND HOW YOU WISH TO HANDLE YOUR CHILD/CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION THIS YEAR. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS YOU CAN CALL THE PARISH OFFICE.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS - Tracy Earl Welliver The Challenge of Stewardship

Every day we are called by Christ to respond in some way. The more practice we have at giving of ourselves freely and living in His presence, the easier it is to discern that call. Once we hear the call, the choice is ours: will we respond with yes or no? We could say that we are not required to say yes because God has given us free will. However, our response speaks much to where we are in our maturity of faith. When we were children, the word "no" used to be one of our favorites. If we continue to say that as we get older, well, that says something about where we are in our walk with the Lord. If we truly are disciples of Jesus Christ and are serious about growing in our faith, we will say "yes." We are not required to say yes, but we say yes because that is who we have become.

This is the challenge of a stewardship way of life. Have we matured enough to say yes when God calls, regardless of how much our answer may cost us? What matters more to us: what it will cost us or our relationship with Jesus? Some days we will easily be able to say yes. The grace and love he gives us will be plenty to see us through whatever situation in which we find ourselves. However, we are imperfect beings and there will be days when we are more into ourselves than him. It is on those days that we find ourselves at a true crossroads of a challenge. The choice is always ours. Hopefully, our faith will be strong enough. His call is never for his own sake. He calls us because the world he created and the Church he instituted need us. They wait just as he does for our response. lpi
