

'You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God'

*"But who do
You say that I am?"*

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To stand in the presence of God is to stand in the presence of incomprehensible mystery. We are people of proofs and facts. With good reason, we are becoming more doubtful of what presents itself to us, as technology makes it easy to fabricate false images and distort what is actually true. What we think is real actually may not be. We become skeptical. Does this skepticism affect our relationship with God? To have faith in God means that we must be willing to trust in the absence of full knowledge. To know the mind of God means we would know God himself, and that is impossible. To acknowledge Jesus as the Christ means we acknowledge that the reality and presence of an incarnate God has a fundamental claim on who we are. When we name this truth, we participate in a depth of knowledge that stretches us far beyond the scope of our minds. It brings us to silence, which is the only way to touch our soul.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The only way to know God is to love God. Our minds will never fully grasp the mystery of God, but our hearts and souls can learn to love the mystery. Years ago, when life had a more innocent quality to it, we believed what we were told or witnessed, unless there was direct evidence otherwise. This was especially true if the information came from someone in authority. In a sense, we were a bit more gullible on one hand but also more trusting on the other. The latter is an admirable quality that sadly can be eroded when we realize we have been duped. With education and technological advances, we find ourselves more skeptical and less likely to too quickly accept and believe what we see and hear.

For all of the good that social media can do, it can also easily distort reality and truth. Photoshop and a myriad other technological truths can add to, fabricate, and make even the non-existent seem real. It is amazing. How far do we allow this obviously justifiable skepticism to take us? Questioning and doubting are healthy elements of any good relationship as long as we don't allow them to turn us away from a deeper experience of love and encounter. If we cannot get our minds around something or empirically justify or prove it, we tend to declare it a hoax, untrue, or unauthentic and walk away. The very same trust that can quickly be eroded is exactly what is essential for all of our relationships, especially our relationship with God. With all things and people that make a profound claim on us, we have to trust in the absence of knowledge. Full self-investment involves plunging completely into the unknown!

Simon Peter said to Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Peter came to this knowledge, which is not "head knowledge" because of the relationship he shared with Jesus and what God was able to reveal in and through that relationship. Peter simply "knew" because of love that this is who Jesus really is. The silent exchange of love between friends, and not an intellectual exercise of the mind, brought Peter to this place. When we stop and think about it, there are many things in life that we simply know but do not completely understand. When someone sacrifices their own well-being for another, it may not make intellectual sense when examined. But it makes a world of sense when it is carried out. The vastness of reality and an encounter with incomprehensible mystery all lead us to profound silence where we simply know something to be true. Have you trusted enough to allow your relationship with God to bring you to this place or are you still too skeptical?

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

It has been our tradition for the past 13 years to come together in prayerful remembrance of the events of 9/11/2001. In the midst of this COVID crisis we will again make proper CDC arrangements and join once more in the Church (and hall) for a Service of Remembrance. As is our custom we will honor both the living and fallen heroes of our generations – with special tribute to those who continue to serve our cities and nations in so many ways.

This year we will honor two special men who are, in their own right, heroes of World War II and Korea. While we have made every effort to invite those members of our parish who are first responders and military (both active and retired) there may be some men and women whom we are not aware of as well as parents of military/first responders sons and daughters. Please consider this an invitation as we would be honored to have you present with us on this special evening of commemoration.

In these difficult days for our Nation we are especially pleased to honor the men and women of our Police Forces. Join us as we pay tribute to those who stand guard over our cities and towns.

Set aside, Friday, September Eleventh, at 7 pm to hold fast to our promise ‘we will never forget!’

Please call the office if you are a First Responder or Military to let us know that you can be with us. 330 273 5500

Fr. Krizner

As this evening is always well attended and we must abide by CDC standards we are making every effort to ‘make room’ within safe parameters...this includes the use of the hall for overflow.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Priestly Ordination of Men

Question:

Why are only men allowed to be priests or deacons in the Church?

Answer:

One of the most debated and — in some circles — contentious teachings of the Church is that only men can be ordained as priests and deacons. Critics see it as a way of strengthening a patriarchal system in which women have little or no voice. Those who support this teaching look to New Testament teaching (where we read of Jesus choosing only men to be apostles) and the long-standing practice of the Church. This was certainly the perspective of St. John Paul II who, in his 1994 apostolic letter, Ordinatio Sacerdotalis, closed the discussion on the possibility of ordaining women as priests.

In the letter, he reflected on the dignity of women and their call to share in the life and mission of the Church, but he concluded by solemnly declaring that “the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgement is to be definitely held by all the Church’s faithful” (no. 4).

This position has been upheld by Pope Francis in interviews, most notably as he returned from his 2016 visit to Sweden.

The ordination of women to the diaconate is another question and one which is being studied. In 2016, Pope Francis created a 12-member commission to study the question from several perspectives (theological, liturgical, historical, etc.). The commission issued an initial report for Pope Francis who later said that the commission had not yet produced a “definite response” to the question because of a lack of agreement on the role of female deacons in the Early Church.

For now, however, regardless of what changes might come from ongoing study and debate, the Church continues to reserve ordination to the diaconate to men only, recognizing a vital link between the diaconate and the priesthood and the lack of certainty about the presence and function of female deacons throughout history.

Remembering with Love....

Our loving prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to the family of Thomas Coyne (father of Patricia Schieferstein) who was called to his Eternal reward. Please pray for him and all the faithful departed.

Live in Light & Peace!

St. Monica is the mother of St. Augustine, she is the patron Saint for those praying for their children who have lost faith. Her son, Augustine led a wayward life—especially as a youth. She persisted in her prayers for his conversion. Not only did Augustine mend his ways but he became one of the great Doctor Saints of the Church. Thursday is the feast of Monica and Friday the feast day of Augustine.
Pray for our young people!

Please pray for those serving in the Military
