

Welcome
SEPTEMBER!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: “What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple.

2Chronicles 7:14

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven,
and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

Heavenly Host, by the power of God,

Heavenly and Gracious Father, discord, disagreement, destruction and turmoil and through the Heart of Your Son return our hearts to peace and calm, understanding and forgiveness.

Through the intercession of our Lady, experience the blessings of Jesus & the wisdom of the Spirit of counsel & peace.

It has been our tradition for the past 13 years to come together in prayerful remembrance of the events of 9/11/2001. In the midst of this COVID crisis we will again make proper CDC arrangements and join once more in the Church (and hall) for a Service of Remembrance. As is our custom we will honor both the living and fallen heroes of our generations – with special tribute to those who continue to serve our cities and nations in so many ways.

This year we will honor two special men who are, in their own right, heroes of World War II and Korea. While we have made every effort to invite those members of our parish who are first responders and military (both active and retired) there may be some men and women whom we are not aware of as well as parents of military/first responders sons and daughters. Please consider this an invitation as we would be honored to have you present with us on this special evening of commemoration.

In these difficult days for our Nation we are especially pleased to honor the men and women of our Police Forces. Join us as we pay tribute to those who stand guard over our cities and towns.

Set aside, Friday, September Eleventh, at 7 pm to hold fast to our promise ‘we will never forget!’

Please call the office if you are a First Responder or Military to let us know that you can be with us. 330 273 5500

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Instruction on Receiving Communion

Question:

How many times a day can a person receive communion?

Answer:

To find an answer to this question, we need to turn to the Church's Code of Canon Law. Here we read, "One who has received the blessed Eucharist may receive it again on the same day only within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates ..." (no. 917). This tells us that the standard answer would be that we can receive communion twice in a day.

Having said that, we also want to be sure that we pay attention to the entire instruction. The phrase "within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates" is important. It means a) that we always have to think of receiving communion as being within a celebration of the Mass and b) we have to be participants in that celebration – we can't simply show up "in time" for communion.

So, when would this rule apply?

For example, if you attend Mass on a Saturday morning and then take part in the Sunday Vigil Mass on Saturday evening, you could licitly receive communion at both celebrations. Or, another example, if you receive communion at a wedding or funeral Mass, you could also receive communion at a daily Mass or Sunday Vigil celebrated on the same day. We always want to be sure that we observe the rules for fasting from food and drink before receiving the Eucharist (see Code of Canon Law, no. 919).

We should also remember that the Code of Canon Law instructs that anyone who is in danger of death or seriously ill may also receive communion a second time (no. 91, §2). ©LPI

We are no longer using gloves to distribute Eucharist. After consulting with the Diocese we were informed that it is more sanitary to have the ministers sanitize their hands before distributing and not use gloves.

We are now using the Atrium for seating during Mass. We have a sanitizer that can be used on cloth as the chairs have a fabric seat.

As the congregation continues to grow in number we will continue to use the parish hall as well.

We will be streaming the 4 o'clock Mass on Saturday and the 8 and 10 a.m. on Sundays. We will begin to fade out the 11:45.

The Masses streamed will always be available, at any time, through the web site.

THERE IS
always, always,
ALWAYS
something to be thankful for

Dear Parish Family,

Among the countless things that call for an expression of gratitude are the many, many, many people who have placed such focus on their offerings to the parish. Obviously when the Church was closed and then limited there was a concern for the infamous 'collection'. I made it a point not to discuss it or to ask that you 'keep us in mind' but the response of our people has been awe-inspiring! I am so very grateful to you. We have been able to keep up with our operating expense and salaries without it becoming burdensome. It is amazing to see people drop off envelopes even though they are not yet able to join in Mass. It is inspiring for our treasurer to go through the mail with envelope after envelope. THANK you most sincerely. Thank you for your care, concern, your kindness, your generosity, your kindly consideration and your love for the parish and the Church. I cannot say it enough— thank you from the bottom of our hearts! (Fr. & the entire staff)

A few other words of gratitude: Thank you for taking time to use the paper bins for recycling. As mentioned before it is good for the earth and it offers back to the parish a few extra dollars. I must tell you that the corner of the lot which hold the bins is one of the busiest places off of 130th!! THANK YOU!

Thank you for taking the time and the effort!

At the writing of this the CONCERT has not yet happened but I think it is safe to say that it was a wonderful evening with so much talent. We hope you enjoyed the surprise of Claudia and her Mom! What vocal genius! Thanks to all of our Music Ministry for allowing us an evening 'away' from the turmoil of the world and offering us, through music and song, to give thanks to the Lord who is a bountiful and loving God! I am so proud of what our Music Ministry continues to evolve into: different faces, different voices but all blended into one splendid chorus of joyful praise! THANK YOU!

Remember in your prayers those who have asked that we bring their needs before the Lord. Pray for our Nation—we must take heart that respect and reverence will one day return to a nation torn asunder by such turmoil, destruction and hate. We are still one Nation UNDER GOD—may God look upon us with mercy!

Blessings to your week.....
