

How quickly comes Christmas!

how silent the night...

The anticipation of the Fourth Sunday of Advent...
He is near! Christmas is almost here!

No season moves so quickly as does Advent!
Thanksgiving is hardly over and the anticipation begins. The long wait is actually a very short wait and because every day is filled with the usual preparations the days move rapidly on—one after the other.

No season of the year is quite like Advent. The December darkness will give way to light and it seems that all of Nature shares in the excitement.

For four weeks we have lit the Advent wreath, echoed O Come Emmanuel, and we have waited for the Christmas that brings about so many memories and touches the heart with the very love that brought the Christ Child to this earth. After all, it was the love that the Father has for us that He sent His only begotten Son that we might know in Jesus the Father and the wonders of His Eternal Kingdom.

I have said this before and allow me to repeat it: Christmas, with all of its joy and wonder, with all of the glory of angels and Wise Men, with all the splendor of family and friends and the solemnity of a Christmas Eve Mass –with all of that and so much more...Christmas is but a prelude to Easter.

So through this season we will accompany Mary and Joseph, marvel at the angel Gabriel, feel the warmth of the shepherd's gaze and look upon a child wrapped in swaddling clothes and know that His destination is from the wooden cradle to a wooden Cross and why?

Are you looking for a Christmas Miracle? There it is—its all about love. It's a love that goes beyond understanding or imagination! That's why it is always a 'Merry Christmas!'

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 20, 2020

4th Sunday of Advent

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent!

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

My

Dear Little Friend,

I am writing to you from the North Pole where we have been very busy preparing all sorts of wonders for you. I am told that you have been very good this year and I am proud of you!

You know that the Elves have been extra-busy this year and right now, at this very moment, they are singing and laughing and sharing cookies which Mrs. Claus has made. Mrs. Claus makes wonderful gingerbread and we, at the North Pole, look forward to her baking. I hope you have remembered to say your prayers each day.

I want you to stay as good as you have been all year long and wait for me on Christmas Eve. Remember, you must be fast asleep when I come to visit your home!

If you can would you leave something out for my reindeers?

They have a very, very busy night on Christmas Eve and they would enjoy a treat....you can leave Santa a cookie too! Ho Ho Ho!

So have a Merry Christmas and let everyone know that this is the time to be Merry and a time to say thank you to those who love you!

Love always, Santa

Sincere gratitude...

Through this Advent Season we have had a remarkable number of people ask what they can do for 'others'. So much has been given to St. Colette Parish and far beyond the reach of our parish because of your kindness, There is no doubt that Christmas touches the heart in so many ways! Please know how grateful I am for this parish and its outreach to others. God must be so pleased!

While it has been a difficult and challenging year we have managed to keep alive the spark of faith that is the hallmark of our Church. Limited as we are by the COVID we have tried to keep something of a schedule to incorporate us to the Family of St. Colette. I am grateful for the Christmas Concert and for the Little Christmas Village. I am grateful to Sara for organizing the Village and to our young people of Celebration for bringing it all together. I am grateful for the Concert and the members of our Music Ministry....with a special welcome back home to Chris! TO all who have helped prepare the Church for Christmas—to all who have done so much for us a whole-hearted, huge Thank You!

Christ is here! He is present to all....He is the 'present' we share and the gift that unites us....there is no finer!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Does the world realize that it is waiting? As we go about all of the busyness of our lives and entertain our distractions, there are many holes and gaps in our lives that need to be filled. We are always wanting more, but not really sure what that "more" needs to be. Fulfillment, happiness, contentment, and true satisfactions are fleeting occurrences and often come to us in illusive ways. What we think is the ultimate fix to our anxious emptiness really is only a fancy trend that we entertain. The world does not realize any more today than it did over two thousand years ago that it is waiting for a Savior. We need a Savior. We need to see and embrace the God who has broken into history and become one with us. It is this union of God and man that sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals, and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. The world does not know how truly lost it is. Do you realize how lost you are and that the One you need most is here among us and within your grasp?

Blessed is the hour when the heavens were opened and the Son of God took His place on earth. Blessed is the Virgin Mary, Mother most pure, Blessed is St. Joseph, Guardian of Jesus and spouse of Mary, Blessed are the angels and Shepherds, & Magi
And blessed are the first to gaze upon the Child—the Lambs and the oxen, the donkey and doves.

From All of Us to All of You!

A very Merry and Happy Christmas!

May the Lord Jesus bless you and may you know the fullest Joy of this holy season!

As you approach the Stable with the Infant lying in a manger of straw know that He has come for each and everyone of us! The real gift of Christmas is the gift of the Jesus the Christ!

The entire Staff of St. Colette Parish wishes you the most wonderful experience of Christmas!
With sincere gratitude to all of You!

STRAW IN THE CRIB

In France, Catholics traditionally place straw in their manger to make it more comfortable for the baby Jesus. The straw represents their prayers and good works throughout the day.

In Ireland, as people visit their parish Nativity scenes on Christmas Eve, they take a small piece of straw from the manger. Believing it to bring good luck in the coming year, folks also give the straw to homebound friends and relatives so that they feel like they're part of the parish Christmas celebration. Other folks place the straw in their wallet so that it is never empty in the coming year.

A similar custom takes place in Poland. As a reminder that Jesus was placed in a manger, families sometimes will place the straw under the table cloth before dinner, or in the corners of the room.
