Sunday December 10th ...

“and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart.” (Isiah 30:30). Today’s Gospel sheds the undimmed light of the voice in the wilderness, preparing the Lord’s way. That voice is none other than John the Baptist, cousin of Jesus, and herald of God’s promise fulfilled. It describes John as a radical, unassuming, wild man of sorts. Yet all the same, he had a following (including eventual followers of Jesus) because the truth holds no assumptions, no agenda, no popularity contest.. It just IS. As attributed to St. Augustine, “the truth is like a lion, you have only to set it free and it will defend itself.” Coincidentally, the symbol of Mark’s Gospel (where our reading is from today) is a lion because of John’s zealous proclamation of truth, “Prepare the way of the Lord!” Are we ready for him?

Fun fact: each Gospel writer has a symbol attached to it.

Matthew: A Man, signifying the genealogy of Jesus that begins his Gospel and His human lineage.

Mark: A Lion because of it’s opening from John the Baptist, unapologetically strong, like a lion of truth!

Luke: An Ox because Zachariah (John the Baptist’s father) was sacrificing an Ox at the beginning of his Gospel when Gabriel appeared to him.

John: An Eagle because of his understanding of God’s light of Truth like an eagle’s ability to stare straight into the sun.

Tuesday December 11th... By now the Christmas trees at St. Colette have been up for quite some time! You’ll see them soon enough... for now we wait! Perhaps a tree adorns your home as well with the tradition of just how that occurs— real or fake, white or colored lights, homemade or decreative ornaments, or both, a star or an angel. A German tradition, the Christmas Tree is a sign of life amidst dead of winter, color amidst the brown of a dormant season. As Christians, the symbolism of this is so obvious, and on a personal level for each of us, so meaningful. As you enjoy the glow from your tree tonight or anticipate the coming occasion you decorate it... or remember the memories from Christmas trees of yester year, let that life revive your spirit and the colors refresh your perspective on the rest of the week.

December 12th~ Our Lady of Guadalupe

A “Golden Hail Mary” is said to be one prayed with one’s whole mind, heart, and soul, priceless in Mary’s eyes. In honor of this feast day and of Elizabeth’s greeting to Mary in today’s Gospel, let’s pray a Golden Hail Mary today— heart, soul, mind. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Wednesday December 13th~ The Feast of St. Lucy

Sweden in particular, though many European countries celebrate Santa Lucia Day! (St. Lucy Day) with lots of Christmasy festivities centered around light. St. Lucy is the patron saint of eyes and blindness. It is said that she used to bring food to the imprisoned and illumined the path to the cells with a candle wreath she placed on her head. At many Santa Lucia festivals, someone plays the roll of St. Lucy wearing this iconic wreath. May her glorious martyrdom, life for Christ, and undimmable light of God illumine our Advent journey. St. Lucy, pray for us!

Saint Lucy's Prayer:

Saint Lucy, you did not hide your light under a basket, but let it shine for the whole world, for all the centuries to see. We may not suffer torture in our lives the way you did, but we are still called to let the light of our Christianity illumine our daily lives. Please help us to have the courage to bring our Christianity into our work, our recreation, our relationships, our conversation -- every corner of our day. Amen

Thursday December 14th~ St. John of the Cross

May I never boast, except in the Cross of Our Lord, Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14). Come to daily Mass today at 11am, or if you can't, stop by the church today.... And if you can't, the next time you're here, be sure to pop in our Mary Chapel (off the back sacristy). There's a beautiful painting of St. John of the Cross hanging there. It serves as a beautiful reminder that our lives are not meant to be comfortable... but COMFORTED by the love of a savior who knows just how we feel.

Thank you St. John of the Cross for your witness to that love... pray for us!

Friday December 15th...

10 days to go!! How's the shopping going? Have you finished your baking, started wrapping, have the kids seen Santa, don't forget the cards, the giving tree, the company party, recitals, and ... How's your heart doing? How's your advent prayer? Is there room for Jesus in your *Christ*mas? There's a beautiful song by Casting Crowns called "Make Room." Give it a listen... in a quiet moment on your own. Give it a listen... make some room.

Saturday December 16th

On this the eve of the third Sunday of Advent, let us call to mind how blessed we are to be Christian, to be Catholic... to walk these days of preparation for Christmas with not only the "Christmas magic" of the North Pole, but of the Light of Truth, Wonder, Counselor, Mighty God, Prince of Peace who's real, who's light, who's Emmanuel... God with us! Don't forget that in your Monday through Saturday, in a wish of a "happy holiday" over a MERRY CHRISTMAS, in your holiday plans on 12/25... He's the reason, He's the light, and he loves you so much!... Allow Him to be a part of you.

My dear friends in Christ,

This second week of Advent, as we light the second candle on the Advent wreath, we pray for PEACE.

How desperately our world needs PEACE with all the conflicts and war that abound. And so, we pray. We ask God to bring peace to our hearts and to our families and to our homes. From this epicenter of God's grace, we extend His peace to our neighborhoods, workplace and to all those we meet.

May we encounter GOD'S PEACE here at St. Colette as a constant outpouring of courage and strength. It flows from the altar to our souls and beyond.

PEACE, that is what we pray for this week putting everything in God's hands acknowledging our total dependence on Him.

God bless you!

PEACE,

Thank you! To all who helped make Christmas Village a wonderful day for the little ones of our parish. Special mention goes to Dusty and Patty Shell and their dedicated kitchen staff, Matt Lombardo, Jo-El Fuller and the kids of Pray and Play, The Holy Name Society for their time, talent, and treasure in "Gingerbread Land," and all of the amazing volunteers. Thank you for bringing your light, and your spirit to our Christmas at St. Colette! Until next time!

Sacred Art... a lens to the eternal...

There's actually a whole section in the Catechism of the Catholic Church dedicated to the importance of Sacred Art. Truth is beauty, and beautiful art, music, movements and the like lead us, draw us closer to the Eternal One. You may have appreciated the beauty of St. Colette in her art and decorations throughout Advent. Thanks to the time and talents of Helena Piller, our Church glistens with the glory of God. Every flower, evergreen, and sparkle has been placed as her form of prayer... and how beautiful! Thank you for sharing your prayer with us, Helena, and allowing us to enter into the truth more deeply through your art. May God bless the work of your hands!

'Tis the Season of Advent!

PSCF CORNER

The Second Graders are preparing to experience God's love and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and to receive Jesus in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. They have been learning the Ten Commandments, the Act of Contrition Prayer and how they can grow in love for God and others!

The Second Graders have also begun preparing for the Advent Season, creating their own Advent wreaths to take home and to recite with their family, the accompanying prayers. They will be using the Kindness Advent Calendars to countdown the days to Christmas and spreading kindness during the Season!

ATTENTION ALTAR SERVERS

Please sign up, based on your availability, for Christmas Mass times in the Vesting Sacristy before or after Mass! Thank you!
