

Alleluia alle

Alleluia

la alleluia alleluia

Isn't Lent the most beautiful time of the year? It's cold, muddy, brown, dreary, barren... you can't eat meat on Fridays, the tone is "sad" in church.... Or is it? I LOVE Lent. I love it. The sacrifice, the barrenness, the dryness, the symbolism... oh the symbolism.... Followed by the stark contrast of Easter day. There's nothing else in the world like it. And I'm so grateful for the Church's traditions and rituals so that I may experience fully the death of my sins to a taste of the fulfillment of my greatest of hopes: to be in that constant state of joy, peace, and love... to be with God in heaven one day. It's been a long-standing tradition of the Church, and for our church as well to "bury" the Alleluia on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday. The purpose as with all visuals of our faith is to draw us deeper into the reality taking place. Sometimes the absence of something beautiful, so beautiful as an Alleluia (or a piece of cake....), is meant to intensify the desire in our hearts for it or redirect our unclean heart to its true purpose. Our Gospel today gives beautiful imagery of this. The "unclean" leper, void of relationships, health, and normalcy makes his reproach of faith to Jesus. He lays it all out there, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Mark goes on to say that Jesus was moved with pity... "I do will it. Be made clean," He says. During Lent, we're given that same opportunity to die to the things that make our hearts not as they should be... whatever that means for us... and to rest assured that any act of faith on our part, surely moves the heart of Jesus in his mercy and goodness.... So much so that he died for it, and redeemed in through resurrection. So welcome the dryness, emptiness and perhaps ugliness of the Lenten season.... Relish in it... LOVE IT! Take part in all the traditions and symbolism, including burying this bulletin cover. Know that at the end of the day, the discomfort is only temporary, but the new life from it is one step closer to eternity in paradise... now isn't that something beautiful, indeed. Happy Lent! ~Sara

Prayer for Healing

Dear Jesus,
If you wish it, you can heal these wounds from my past. If you wish it,
you can make me
well again. I believe that you do will it.
Heal me, in your name.
Amen. ©LPi

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday... days of Fasting and Abstinence:

Every Friday of Lent we're asked to abstain from meat in sacrifice and love for God.

*Lent is a time to find our way back to Jesus through: Prayer, Fasting/ Abstinence (to "give something up")

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Saint Vs. Blessed

Question:

What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

Answer:

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot. It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization." Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor. ©LPi

Dear Parishioners, Neighbors, and Community Partners, it is unfortunate that we must announce that the partnership between St. Colette Church and Integrity Fiber, the parent company of River Valley Paper Recycling has been discontinued as of February 2024. The initiative to host the recycling program on the Church property has been eliminated by Integrity Fiber, thus requiring St. Colette to run a monthly deficit on this program. As a result, the Paper Retriever bins in the South Parking Lot will be removed from the Church. An exact end date of the dumpster service at the Church is not available at this time. We are very sorry for any inconvenience this may cause and encourage you to continue to recycle at other, Paper Retriever locations. Thank you for understanding!

*Happy Feast Day,
St Colette!!* (February 7th) Pray

for us! Pray for those hoping to conceive and all expectant mothers.

As God pleases, as God wills!

“God made us for joy. God is joy, and the joy of living reflects the original joy that God felt in creating us.”

St. Pope John Paul II
