

God Himself Will Provide the Lamb

There is a story that goes: There was once a foolish pilgrim who talked to God (and God talked to her). She had no idea what a privilege this was. It so happened that one day, shortly before Lent, the pilgrim prayed, "How should I fast. O God, should I eat less bread and butter?" "Don't you know by now," God answered, "that fasting goes far beyond food. It has to do with what is in your heart. Therefore, fast from gossip and criticism, fast from envy and anger, fast from boasting and greed. Fast from all that harms or saddens another."

"O God," the pilgrim prayed, "how little you know about fasting! ... I'll eat less bread and butter!"

As we enter into Lent for 2024, the pilgrim's question becomes ours. "How should we fast, O God?" For each of us the answer will be different. Below are suggestions to just such a question:

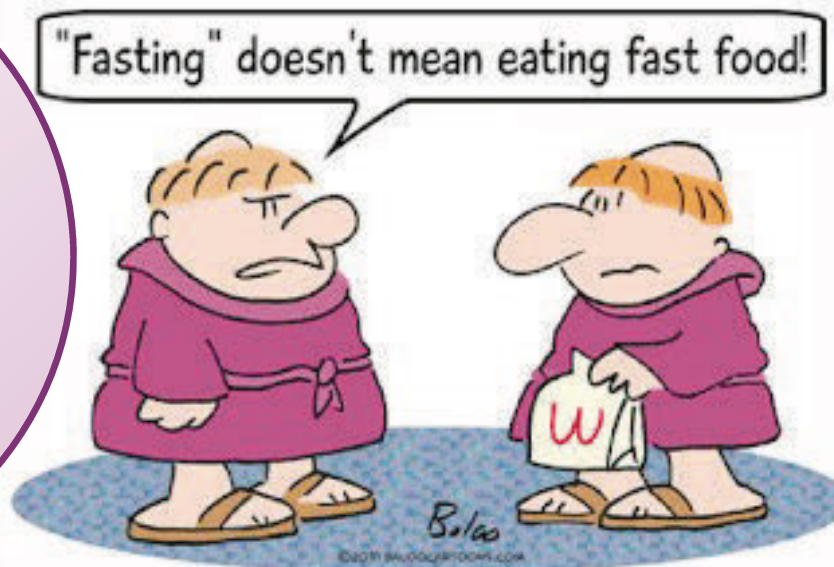

FAST from judging others
FAST from words that pollute
FAST from worry
FAST from negatives
FAST from personal anxiety
FAST from discontent
FAST from pessimism
FAST from suspicion
FAST from thoughts that weaken
FAST from problems that overwhelm
FAST from shadows of sorrow

FAST from thoughts of illness
FAST from anger
FAST from complaining
FAST from bitterness
FAST from self concern
FAST from hostility
FAST from discouragement
FAST from lethargy
FAST from idle gossip
FAST from apparent darkness

Fr. Pina

Prayer of Trust

Dear Lord,
Your ways confuse me sometimes. Often, I don't fully understand what You are doing. But I believe that You are working in a way that will one day make sense. Until then, keep me close to You, trusting blindly in the ways You lead me. Amen. ©LPI

When St. John Maria Vianney asked an old farmer what he did in the church looking at the tabernacle, the humble man responded, "Nothing, I look at Him, and He looks at me." CCC 2175

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The Transfiguration of your heart... to love what He loves, to want what He wants... because his wants, his love for you is beyond your greatest imaginings. And in that moment of adoring, His greatest want is satisfied...His want is always YOU.

Lord, let me stay with you, let me never leave you... let me never be separated from the warmth of your love for me...
Like Peter, don't you just want to "build three tents" in those moments with Jesus, in those moments of awe, joy and peace in our lives... and "stay there forever"? It's easier to do that than face the daily cross. Let the moments atop the mountain be the life that sustains you in the hardships of whatever your reality, pondering, always pondering the eternal, perpetual awe, joy, and peace in the life awaiting you beyond the cross.

Join us for Weekly Adoration every Monday 9:30am– 6PM! Come for a minute, an hour or the whole day. Sign-up in the atrium to cover weekly time slots!

we hope, we adore!

Our Catholic life Explained: BeCOMING Catholic!

RCIA Rite of Sending & Election... by Noah

At the Rite of Election, the catechumens and candidates go through a change in identity. As once seekers and now catechumens, the Ordinary of the Diocese, the Bishop – on behalf of the universal Church, pronounces the catechumens to be The Elect, those to enter the Church at the Easter Vigil this year. This is a very powerful moment for both adults, teens, and children alike who participate in the Rite of Election. Not only can some as young as seven years of age barely write their name in the Book of the Elect, but their faith in doing so is extremely profound – a witness to the entire community of faith that newness of life is possible. A catechumenal culture recognizes what it means to be chosen, abandoned – like Christ, and crucified with Him. Not only does this step in the journey visibly recognize the transformation that has taken place thus far and foreshadow what is to come, but it should be a moment for the entire community of faith to assess their spiritual walk with the Lord.

When seeing the catechumens and candidates sent for the Rite of Election, I encourage you to ask yourself, “How am I being transformed?”

A catechumenal culture is one where everyone is converted; so, how have you been converted or re-converted more intimately to Christ?

Know of our continued prayers for you, Elect brothers and sisters!

Support your community

BLOOD DRIVE

Aiden's Fun Bunch Blood Drive In Memory of Aiden M.

Join us again as we host a blood drive in memory of Aiden M. who was called home to God in December of 2022. Aiden spread joy and love to so many in his short life. Throughout Aiden's medical journey, he was the recipient of blood products. His family asks that you help save the lives of others by giving blood to help patients like him.
