

Merry Christmas!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while. The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn't coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus' contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they'd never met, one they couldn't be sure truly existed. "We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously?

"Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem," the Gospel tells us. Who are the seekers in your own life? Maybe it's your cautiously curious co-worker, the neighbor who unexpectedly found peace on a yoga retreat, or your desperately angry child who has chosen, for now, to go their own way. Perhaps they're not overtly headed for Jesus now, not yet. But they may well be seekers of truth in ways we didn't expect. Our invitation is to listen, inquire, and give directions when appropriate.

The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God's truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family. Consider asking yourself, "God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answers say about me, and about our relationship?" Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be "overjoyed" at seeing the Light of the World.

EPIPHANY BLESSING OF YOUR HOME.

Leader of the household: In the Name of the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen, We come to You, O Lord, generous and loving God, asking Your blessings upon our home. Fill the halls of this house with Your Presence and gladdened the hearts of all who enter. May the glory of the Lord, Emmanuel, God among us, ever be present beneath this roof and within our hearts. Amen.

PRAY THE MAGNIFICAT~

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; for He has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

From this day all generations shall call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is His Name. He has mercy on those who fear Him in every generation. He has shown the strength of His arm, He has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of His servant Israel for He has remembered His promise of mercy, the promise He made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen.

Leader or one chosen within the family:

Be enlightened and shine forth, O Jerusalem, for thy light is come, and upon thee is risen the glory of the Lord, Jesus Christ, born of the Virgin Mary Response: Guided by a star They came to worship the King. Upon entering the home they found the Child with His Mother and presented gifts of gold, frankincense and Myrrh. Our Savior has come. Alleluia!

Head of the household blesses the room(s) (home) with holy water as he/she prays:

BLESS O LORD, this home that it may be a welcoming place for You and for all the Saints of the heavenly kingdom. Bless this home, O Lord, that all who dwell within may know your kindness and experience daily your blessings; + this we pray in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Traditional Epiphany Announcement of the Liturgical Year ahead and the Celebration of Easter!!

The proclamation of the date of Easter and the other moveable feasts on Epiphany dates from a time when calendars were not readily available. It was necessary to make known the date of Easter in advance, since many celebrations of the liturgical year depend on its date. The number of Sundays that follow Epiphany, the date of Ash Wednesday, and the number of Sundays that follow Pentecost are all computed in relation to Easter

Announcement of Easter and the Moveable Feasts (for the year 2020)

Know, dear brethren (brothers and sisters), that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ,
so by leave of God's mercy
we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the twenty-sixth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the twelfth day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[In those places where the Ascension is observed on Thursday:

On the twenty-first day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.]

[In those places where the Ascension is transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter:

On the twenty-fourth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.]

On the thirty-first day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the fourteenth day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the twenty-ninth day of November, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Thank You

Thank you so very, very much for your Christmas greetings, cards and kindnesses! Thank you for the bakery, the candy, and the treats for Lily & Grace. Thank you for being so considerate and for sharing in the spirit of the Season. This is such an overwhelming kind parish and please forgive me for not thanking you individually. Please know I am more than grateful and will keep All of us in prayer, May the Season of His gentle Love enfold You and yours and may we all know His merciful Presence all the year thru!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Have you ever experienced a time in your life when everything came together and became abundantly clear? You may have been confused about something, in the dark, at a point of doubt, or unclear as to how to act. You may have questioned someone's motivation and found yourself coming to the wrong conclusion. Then out of nowhere, the insight came and reality dawned. You experienced an epiphany of sorts! Today, we celebrate Christ's manifestation to all of the nations of the world. Has it dawned on you yet that Jesus Christ is the answer humanity has been seeking? Jesus is truly the beginning and end of all things and the key to understanding God's presence in every human heart. Once this real Epiphany dawns on us, we can never see God, ourselves, or one another in any other way. The Divine Light illumines everything and connects the dots.

Some years ago this article was included in the Bulletin. Lily and Grace were dismayed that in January the Christmas Tree came down and that the First Month arrived with nothing more than snow and cold. Sad and forlorn the two dogs sat where the Christmas Tree once stood bemoaning the end of presents, carols, decorations & treats. It was Gracie who had ‘AN IDEA’ and she left the room in a determined urgency. When she returned so was the idea of the Waiting Branch born and to this day on the window sill in the parlor is a tiny vase with an evergreen branch that serves as a reminder that, like all good things, Christmas will return after the days of spring, summer and fall have extended their stay. On those lazy, warm days of summer when air conditioners and ice cream become our best friends and after pumpkins have turned into jack-o-lanterns there is a reminder that patiently sits on the window sill reminding us of ‘Silent Nights and jingle bells!’. Try it! Fr. K.

The Waiting Branch!

“Where’s the Christmas Tree?” Gracie asked with certain sadness in her words. Lily looked up from her comfortable position near the fireplace, “It’s in the attic.” she responded. Gracie thought long and hard and continued her inquiry, “Does that mean that we go up to the attic now to continue Christmas?” Lily smiled, “Christmas is over. It doesn’t come back until next December.” Gracie went to the corner of the room where the tree had stood. “That’s terribly sad,” she said, “No more tree, no more visitors, no more Christmas songs, no more treats, no more gifts, no more lights, no more candy canes...” Lily interrupted her, “Yes, Gracie, no more until December!” In a flash Gracie was gone as Lily returned to her nap though wondering what her sister might be up to. After a crashing noise from the kitchen Gracie returned with an evergreen branch in her mouth. “Where did you get that?” asked Lily. Gracie dropped the branch to answer, “from the wreath on the table the only thing left that I can find of Christmas!” Lily tilted her head trying to understand, “What do you plan on doing with it?” Gracie’s eyes brightened, “I am going to put it in the corner where the Christmas Tree stood as a reminder that Christmas never really ends even if it is stored away in the attic. I will keep it right there and it will help me to remember that this special corner was filled with lights and tinsel and all kinds of gifts. This will be the “waiting branch”-just a little bit of Christmas to take me through the whole year until December comes back! Lily had no response. She watched as Gracie carefully placed the branch in the corner of the room and then sat to admire her work. Then joining Lily she lay down near the fireplace with her eyes focused on the little fir branch in the corner where the Christmas Tree once stood.”
