GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives four reasons for the Incarnation, why God became man in Jesus Christ. The third reason is “to be our model of holiness.” All of Jesus’ words and actions model for us what we ought to do. He also shows us how we’re meant to be. Jesus’ baptism ought to remind us of our own baptism and of the importance of baptism in the Christian life.

The Baptism of the Lord reminds us of our Trinitarian identity. When we are baptized, we stand in solidarity with Christ, bathed in the waters he sanctified. There, the Father proclaims our adoption into the family of God. “This is my beloved son [this is my beloved daughter], with whom I am well pleased.” And the Spirit, too, descends. We are filled with the Spirit’s grace and power to continue Christ’s mission on earth. We received these gifts in the sacrament, and they continue to dwell within us through sanctifying grace. We can — and should — invite God to stir up these graces of our baptism and consider them in our own lives.

Does Christ feel like a distant relative two thousand years in the past? Or do you see him as someone who can be encountered here and now? Ask yourself where you find your sense of dignity and worth. Do you still search for it in success, social status, and selfish pursuits? Or are you able to rest in being a beloved child of God? Remember, baptism gives us a call and a charge to change the world. Do you pray for the Holy Spirit to guide you? Or are you so focused on your own life that you miss the mission? This week, let’s do as Jesus did. Let’s live in our baptism!

This is my beloved Son,
with whom I am well pleased.

Matthew 3:17

The Baptism of Jesus is similar in purpose to our own. As Jesus was distinguished as the beloved Son in whom God is well pleased, so, too, are we. We share that same special favor with God and are brought into an intimate relationship with Him. Does this reality change how we feel about ourselves? It certainly does. Baptism forever changes us and calls us to the ministries of mercy and humility. God has formed each of us in our mother's womb and asks us to be a light for all people. We carry this light humbly as we know who ultimately has a claim on us and to whom we belong. We then are called to live our lives in imitation of Christ and become incarnate vessels of mercy. Our world needs to be touched by compassion and only we can complete the task.

A PERSONAL RENEWAL OF OUR BAPTISM PROMISES!

“I, N. N., who through the tender mercy of the Eternal Father was privileged to be baptized "in the name of the Lord Jesus" [Acts 19, 5] and thus to share in the dignity of his Divine Sonship, wish now in the presence of this same loving Father and of his only-begotten Son to renew in all sincerity the promises I solemnly made at the time of my holy Baptism. I, therefore, now do once again renounce Satan; I renounce all his works; I renounce all his allurements.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, Who was born into this world and Who suffered and died for my sins and rose again. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.

Having been buried with Christ unto death and raised up with Him unto a new life, I promise to live no longer for myself or for that world which is the enemy of God but for Him who died for me and rose again, serving God, my heavenly Father, faithfully and unto death in the holy Catholic Church.

Taught by our Savior's command and formed by the word of God, I now dare to say: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen”

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

QUESTION:

Why do Catholics baptize infants, while some other Christian denominations wait until adulthood?

Answer:

To understand when we baptize, it's important to know what baptism is. Baptism removes original sin, and we are reborn into the family of God, adopted as His sons and daughters. We become joint heirs with Christ and sharers in his mission. Early on, baptism was given immediately upon personal conversion, such as the three thousand baptized at Pentecost. Some Christian churches today emphasize baptism specifically as personal conversion. As such, they would not baptize young children who have not yet consciously chosen to follow Christ. As the Church slowly grew, whole households were baptized together upon the deep conversion of one of the leaders (Acts 16). From this evidence, we can surmise that may have included children who were just beginning to hear the Christian message. This would not have been uncommon, especially for Jewish converts. Circumcision marked entrance into the Old Covenant for men. This occurred, without the express consent of the infants, to male children eight days after their birth.

In the second century, processes had begun to more gradually incorporate people into the Church. The basis of this "catechumenal model" is still used in parishes today for adults wishing to convert to Catholicism. The familial transmission of faith still retains an important place. Throughout his ministry, Jesus emphasized the importance of baptism for salvation. As Catholics see it, "The Church and the parents would deny a child a priceless grace of becoming a child of God were they not to confer Baptism shortly after birth. Christian parents will recognize that this practice also accords with their role as nurturers of the life that God has entrusted to them" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1250-1251).

The Season of ORDINARY TIME

With the Baptism of the Lord we enter into ORDINARY Time within the Church Calendar. The Gospel will turn to the ministry and miracles of Jesus and will accompany us through our Liturgies until Lent. With Lent the Church will be clad in purple until the Celebration of the Resurrection on Easter! We then move into another cycle—from Green to Purple to White! Although called Ordinary Time it is certainly not ordinary. It is Extraordinary as we recount the Mission of Jesus, the gathering of Apostles and Disciples, and the miracles and words of the Divine Teacher and Master! Celebrate these (green) Days as the Lord has come and will come again!

A Lily & Grace Story

"Cotton seems smug! Gracie exclaimed with obvious resentment, and gets far too much attention! Everyone wants to see the 'new bunny' yet we have been here for so long. After all, we are the originals and suddenly the rabbit is the center piece of each new day!" Lily nodded in passive agreement as she finished the last morsel of her chew bone. Lily really didn't share Gracie's resentment over the newest member of the 'group' but continued the conversation in her own carefree manner adding, "Cotton really is not the new bunny. It has been 9 months since the bunny arrived and that's a long time." Gracie tilted her head in deep consideration then quickly said, "Well it seems a lot longer than that!" Lily smiled, "That's because you don't want a bunny around and so every day seems longer and longer to you. On the other hand, I don't mind the rabbit.. Cotton is quiet, docile and doesn't eat our treats. Gracie took a long minute to respond, "But the bunny also got all kinds of gifts for Christmas: a new cage, new hay stacks, new toys, new treats" Lily grinned, took a long pause, and then hiding her smile and coming very near to Gracie's ears whispered, "That's because she is the Easter Bunny! But shhhhh it's a secret and no one else is supposed to know that we are living with the Easter Bunny!

Gracie's eyes opened wide. She drew near to Lily and returned the whisper, "The Easter Bunny?" Lily forced away her smile as she drew out a long 'yessss' Gracie laid down on all four paws and set her head on the carpet.. She was in very deep and deliberate thought. After many minutes she said, "Lily then maybe I have been wrong about the Bunny. Maybe I need to give Cotton a chance." Lily stood over Gracie and with a stern bark said, "So now you accept Cotton because you believe the rabbit may have something to offer you other than the friendship the bunny has tried to share with you all this time. You changed your mind because Easter is a few months away and you have great expectations! How is that fair to Cotton? I have seen Cotton follow you in the hall way when it is playtime and you nearly step on her. I have seen the bunny come to the side of the cage when you enter the room just to see you and yet you have ignored the bunny. How does any of this seem right?" Grace remained silent as a sad expression ran across her face. But Lily turned completely away from Gracie and silently smiled thinking, "How gullible can Gracie be? I will have to remember this next December when we see a deer in the back woods. I will convince her it is Dasher or Dancer! Then composing herself and turning to Grace she said, "Let's go see Cotton and offer her a soft bark to say hello. Gracie jumped to her feet saying, "I owe Cotton more than just a soft bark don't I?" Lily nodded. As they entered the room where Cotton is kept the bunny immediately came to the side of the cage to greet the two dogs. They barked a warm hello and Cotton set his paws on the side of the cage in recognition. Three friends had come to a new agreement. Lily made her point. Gracie's heart was moved to receive a new friend and so ends the story.....EXCEPT FOR ONE SMALL DETAIL >

Continued,,,,,

When Lily and Gracie left Cotton for a good night's sleep the two dogs went to their respective dog beds. They did their usual scratching and pawing at the dog pillows to find just the right spot to comfortably spend the night. But to their wonder and amazement spread out over both pillows were jelly beans!

Now where could they possibly have come from?

Dear Parish Family,
With Christmas over we look now to the snow days of Winter until Groundhog day. By the way the traditional end of Christmas was February 2nd, the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. This marked the end of a 40 day "Christmastide" that equaled the 40 days of Lent. In some traditional circles this is still kept as the close of the Christmas Season!

Personally I look forward to a change in Season and whatever the case within the rectory there are still remnants of Christmas which I am eager to see disappear. We had a grand Christmas here at St. Colette but the preparation and the work entails the entire staff for hours on end...Christmas comes quickly and then it is Clean-up time: tinsel, lights, ribbons, wrapping paper, sparkles, evergreens, ornaments, boxes and more boxes – endless. And in the midst of it all is the Christ Child born to give His life for us! Redemption!

As we have slowed down a little I had the chance to read through your cards and greetings and once again I am so grateful. Your prayers and good wishes, your remembrances and your kindness is overwhelming! (and in some cases fattening)

I have said it before but please know how grateful I am...as is Lily, Gracie and Cotton! Thank you so very, very much. God return your kindness with His blessings in every good way!

As always—remember those who are ill and those who have asked our prayers -especially those sometimes forgotten. May your week be blessed as we enter into The Ordinary Time of the Church Year to Celebrate the Good News of Jesus!

In His Name!

PLEASE SPEAK
SOFTLY,
OUR NEIGHBORS
CAN HEAR YOU.

I hear all the complaints and with each complaint there is not always an answer that is satisfactory. 'People with phones ringing during Mass, people leaving right after communion, people coughing, and sneezing—should we do a sign of peace or not, people not moving for others to get into a pew, and on and on it goes. The fact is that there are not that many complaints in this parish for which I am grateful. There is one, however, that seems to disturb others sitting around you and, to be honest, me as well. It is the LOUD RESPONDER! -and often enough a response a split second ahead of everyone else. You do not have to speak LOUDLY the responses at Mass. It puts others off key and there are times when even I am stuck a few words behind. Please be considerate of others! We are supposed to be of 'one voice' and no one has been elected to be the response-director! Please soften your voice when responding and singing. This is not American Idol! At the 10 o'clock Mass there is someone whose voice actually carries over to Music Ministry from the other side of the Church! It throws them off as well. I appreciate your enthusiasm and devotion but we are a part of a Community. I don't want to ever have to approach you personally but with enough complaints I'll have no choice. This applies to daily and the 7 pm evening Mass as well.

Thank you for UNDERSTANDING!

GOD HEARS IN WHISPERS!
