

Sunday of the Word of God

Third Sunday of Ordinary Time
26 January 2020

SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD!

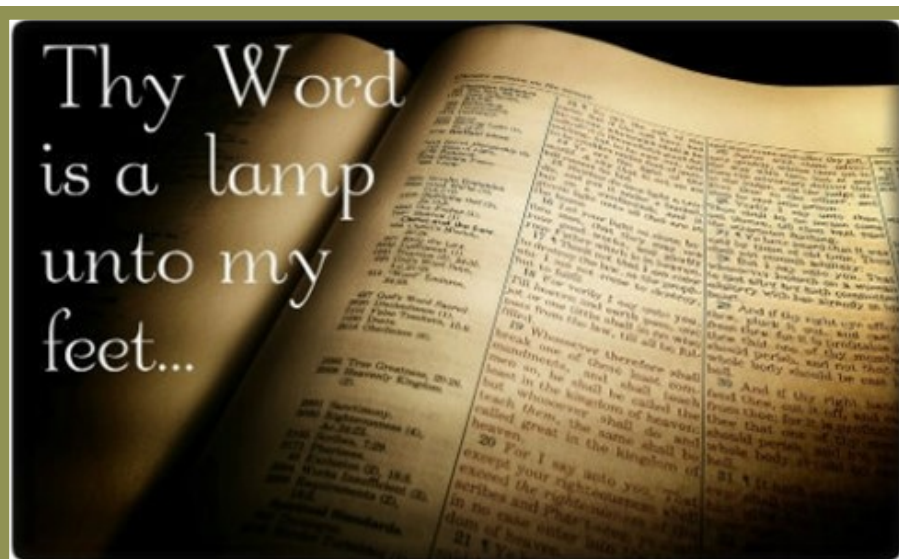

“On the feast of St Jerome Pope Francis issued a ‘Motu Proprio’ instituting the Sunday of the Word of God. It will be marked each year on the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time.

The Holy Father had proposed the idea at the conclusion of the Year of Mercy when he wrote: a Sunday given over entirely to the word of God, so as to appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people.This Sunday of the Word of God will thus be a fitting part of that time of the year when we are encouraged to strengthen our bonds with the Jewish people and to pray for Christian unity. This is more than a temporal coincidence: the celebration of the Sunday of the Word of God has ecumenical value, since the Scriptures point out, for those who listen, the path to authentic and firm unity.

“A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers.”

– Pope Francis

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It begins! Jesus is doing something new. “He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea.” Jesus leaves his family, his profession of carpentry, and everything he has known and loved for the previous 30 years. He goes because it is time. Something new is beginning, and Jesus will not begin it alone. “As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers ... he walked along from there and saw two other brothers.” What does he say to these men? “Come after me.” These words are for Peter and Andrew, for James and for John. They are also for all of us.

“Come after me.” The adventure of discipleship will be strange, wild, and unexpected. The Apostles surely didn’t know what they were getting into. But the invitation is accompanied by a promise. “I will make you fishers of men,” Jesus tells the first Apostles. No more will their priorities be limited to this particular village, to the square miles of the Sea of Galilee. Their eyes will be open to the kingdom of God, and their priorities will shift.

Most of us will not be called to roam the countryside, but we are invited to a similar shift of priorities. “Come after me,” Jesus says. “At once they left their nets and followed him.” Drop the nets of what you’ve demanded your life to be. Drop your self-seeking priorities. Drop your concept of religion as a Sunday obligation and no more. Drop your disregard for those outside your immediate social sphere. Whatever it is that keeps you from seeing as Jesus sees, from loving as he loves, start to drop it today. Because the kingdom of God is waiting for your yes!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you feel overly oppressed or burdened by life's demands or feel unsettled and anxious about where you find yourself? Many walk through life carrying very heavy sacks on their shoulders and are weighed down by them. Moments of joy and light are far and few between, with darkness and disappointment being more the norm. God desires that we live in light and experience joy. Christ has revealed this to us. Often, we give the world and things we have created too much power over us. We lose our sense of playfulness and freedom and allow other people and things to define and influence us. We are asked to reclaim ourselves today and realize that we are being asked to spread the Gospel of joy. Are we able and willing to do this?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

How do I discern if a call to do something big is really from God?

Answer:

Each day we face plenty of decisions about following God: whether or not to pray, how to treat people, and how to prioritize our time. Sometimes there can be something much more significant we discern: a vocational call, a promotion at work that requires a move, or a new ministry position at church. In addition to a pro-con list or a cost-benefit analysis, here are a few things to prayerfully consider and to talk over with trusted individuals.

Does it conform to God's will revealed in the Church? God doesn't call us to do something that contradicts the moral law. Will it encourage spiritual growth? Sometimes we need to choose between multiple good options. Consider the personal impact on you and others you are responsible for, like family. Other times we might be invited to do good for others, but when we assess our other life commitments, we see that saying yes to this would actually impede our prior responsibilities in the long run. Does the call seem consistent? This isn't to say that God won't do something new. Even so, consider if the call is consistent with your gifts and abilities. Can you see a "through-line" so to speak, with how your experiences have led you to this point? Do others confirm it? Share your reflections with trusted, insightful confidantes. Have they seen the same things you have, or are they bringing up new points to consider? Humbly add their relevant points to your considerations. Don't forget your gut. After you've carefully considered everything in your mind, don't neglect your instincts. Does your heart say yes or no?

Lily, Gracie, and Phil!

Lily always knew that this would happen. It was inevitable and just a matter of time. So without hesitation she asked, “Gracie, what are you doing?” With snow and mud covering her face Grace took a break from her task to answer, “I’m digging.” Lily came closer “Digging for what?” Again Gracie stopped her work-now somewhat put off by Lily’s interfering questions. She used her paw to remove snow from her nose and replied, “I am digging a hole beneath this tree.” Lily knew she should go no further but just one more question and she would allow her sister to go on with her task. And so with one word Lily asked, “Why?”

Gracie did not answer immediately as she tugged and pulled on a root. Taking a break she said, “I am digging a hole so that I can burrow in it and then come back out again.” With a tilt of her head Lily asked, “Gracie, ” is there a point to this?” Gracie gave out a growl and pulled back on the root. Satisfied that it had been removed she turned to Lily and said, “Yes, I want to burrow into the hole and then come out and see if I will see my shadow.”

Lily nodded, “I thought so. And I have to say that I am disappointed with myself that I even asked.” Gracie simply smiled since she had no idea what Lily meant. Lily slowly walked away shaking her head in wonderment adding, “Let me know how it turns out,” Gracie responded quickly, “Oh, I can’t do that today.” Lily stopped, “and why not?” Gracie smirked, “Because it’s not February 2nd!!”

But here ended the conversation by Lily’s own design. She laid down on the porch and watched wondering aloud, “And when Father sees the hole beneath the tree I wonder if it will be 6 more weeks of treats or none until Spring!”

2013 Fr. K

Dear Parish Family,

One of my personal favorite days of the year! Groundhog Day! It coincides, and in fact, takes it’s roots in Candlemas Day! One way or the other the days are getting brighter and Punxsutawney Phil will make his famous prognosis: 6 more weeks of winter or an Early Spring!

This past week a lady called the office from England. She had come across one of our old bulletins about Groundhog Day and wanted to use a line or two. (they must read our bulletin in England—I will have to tell Fr. Julius!)

In looking up the bulletin I found this OLD story about Lily & Grace. I hope it adds to your festivity on February 2nd! While we have not had a terrible winter why not hope for an early Spring! By the way Spring begins March 19th this year (leap year) but the first full day of Spring is March 20th!

Enjoy the days which leads to an eventual Spring and know that all good things come from the hands of God!
