

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Grace and sin, belief and unbelief, good and evil all exist together. While we wrestle with these two dimensions of reality inwardly, they are also witnessed in the actions and words of others. Many, all too often, beat themselves up because of their sin. We are also all too quick to pass judgment on others whom we perceive to be in error and walking down a wrong path. God does not make rash judgments, nor should we. Patience is the order of the day as is an understanding that God is ultimately the caller of the shots.

Our faith tells us that while God allows the wheat and the weeds to coexist, the wheat will always triumph. As long as we can cultivate even a little faith and a small measure of desire for God, He can produce abundant blessings and good things. Even when the weeds seem to have triumphed, there still may be a small measure of faith remaining that can be cultivated and grown. It doesn't take much! Unless a person totally allows the weeds to reign, there is always to be found at least a small measure of faith, good, light, and love. With even this small portion, God can produce abundant growth.

Admittedly, it is easy to give into the weeds, and they grow very quickly. Any gardener knows this to be true. Sometimes, the weeds even seem more attractive and vibrant. Dealing with weeds can quickly become a losing battle, and they can look healthier and grow faster than the very plants we are trying to protect. It's easy to give into them and let them win. While God will deal with all things in due time, we are responsible for keeping things in check in the short term. It is our task to keep our eyes fixed on God's presence and mercy. We are asked to avoid judgment. And, it is not our responsibility to deal with the weeds in someone else's garden, only our own. One garden is enough responsibility for anyone.

Weeds have power. We have to realize this. While they can appear attractive and healthy, they can quickly choke us off from God's presence. Our task is one of maintenance and cultivating a desire for God. Even the smallest kernel of faith can grow into something wonderful. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds.

“Christ came to bring joy: joy to children, joy to parents, joy to families and to friends, joy to workers, and to scholars, joy to the sick and joy to the elderly, joy to all humanity.

In a true sense, joy is the keynote of the Christian Message and the recurring motif of the Gospels...be messengers of joy.”

~Pope St. John Paul II

The Times of the Spirit.

*JOY is not in things,
it is...in us.*

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Grace and sin are found together. As much as our hearts long for union with God, there is always that part of us that resists. As much as I wholeheartedly believe in God, there is a dimension of disbelief with which I also wrestle. Even though we may seek purity and integrity in all of our thoughts, words, and deeds, there is also the path toward weakness and sin that we find ourselves traversing. Just as weeds can easily overtake the best of gardens, so too can weakness and sin overtake and overwhelm a person. The call is to realize the power the weeds of sin have to choke us off from God's presence. While God allows the wheat and the weeds to exist together, we must keep our eyes fixed on God's mercy and forgiveness and resist the death that comes from giving way to sin and evil. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds. For now, we must be vigilant and regularly seek the assistance of the Master Gardener.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Fish on Friday

Question:

Why do Catholics eat fish on Friday?

Answer:

For centuries, meatless Fridays were the norm for Catholics throughout the world. Friday was chosen because that was the day on which Jesus died, and Christians wanted to find a way to honor that day with special prayers and acts of penance and self-denial. The practice of abstaining from meat on Fridays — under pain of sin — grew out of that desire, and it became an official part of Church teaching until the time of the Second Vatican Council.

In the 1960s, there was a shift in the Church's thinking, in large part because there was a recognition that differences in cultures and economic realities meant that eating or not eating meat had different meanings for different peoples. For example, in cultures that were largely dependent on seafood or a vegetarian diet, abstaining from meat was no sacrifice at all. While in other places, eating fish and other kinds of seafood was actually something rare and special and not a sacrifice. This was all part of a basic reflection on "why we do what we do" among the Church's pastors.

Today, Catholics throughout the world are still instructed to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent. The bishops of some countries, such as in England and Wales, ask Catholics to abstain from meat every Friday, continuing the older tradition. The Bishops of the United States have taken a slightly different approach, encouraging Catholics to honor Friday as a special day by abstaining from meat every Friday or by taking on some other work of penance or charity for the sake of others.

Regardless of what we choose to do, the real value in all of this is to see a reflection of Good Friday in each Friday, to remember the self-giving love of Jesus, and to honor that love through some sort of sacrifice or act of mercy.

As we continue to move through the COVID Crisis our schedule is somewhat different...

Mass on Saturday is at 4 p.m.

Mass on Sunday is at 8, 10 and NOON.

We need the time to sanitize the church between the 10 and noon—thus the change from our former time of 11:45.

Mass on Weekdays is on Wednesday and Friday at 11 a.m. UNLESS there is a funeral Mass or Memorial Mass. Depending on the schedule, the priest who celebrates the weekday Mass will stay after for the Sacrament of Reconciliation held in the Mary Chapel.

ON Tuesday we will celebrate a brief Communion Service with Deacon Tom. This is EVER OTHER TUESDAY—with the next being on July 28th

Lord God, Heavenly Father,

eternal Love. Be ever mindful of our prayer as we place our trust in
You, our Lord and our God.

Dear Parish Family,
It seems that these days of COVID are one day forward and two step behind. IT is becoming increasingly difficult to figure out where we are at in our battle with this disease. One day we seem to be winning and the next it is another defeat. We are becoming battle –worn!

Yet in the midst of all this we move on and go forward. I must tell you that the Staff here is kept busy. We have had an unusual number of Funeral Masses and Memorial Masses, and are still catching up from postponed weddings and baptisms. Our candidates for RCIA are just now being welcomed into the Church and receiving their first Sacraments....something that would have ordinarily happened on Holy Saturday. (Did we have a Holy Saturday?) Our Pastoral Minister, Lisa, has continued working with our candidates even through this COVID-crisis. I am grateful to her for such dedication and to the Candidates who have persevered in patience and anticipation. Gratitude to Abbot Gary who will be confirming them on July 18th. God's every blessing to each of them.

We are continuing our live stream and continuing to use the Parish Hall for overflow crowds. Masses being live streamed are at and remain available through our website and You tube.

So as we move forward please know that we too are 'hoping' and praying for some solution or conclusion to the virus. We are trying our very, very best to make 'Church' appear normal and welcoming. There have been so many details that have had our attention as the virus has affected every aspect of parish life. Pray to our Lady of Mercy! May she turn to her Son, the source of all mercy and bring us the grace of perseverance and the solace of His Love.

Remember in your prayers those who have asked our prayers and those seeking healing and wholeness. Remember too the families of those who have recently been called to Eternity. May they live in the Peace of Christ Jesus, the Resurrection and Life.

May your week be blessed in unimaginable ways! Thank you for all that you do for us!

Fr. Krizner, The Lily, Gracie, and Cotton and the Fish!

Prayer to Mary Immaculate Patroness of the United States

Blessed Mother Mary, we turn to you in prayer for all the people in these United States. We again place ourselves in your care, in the gentle hands that cradled the Child Jesus.

We ask you to make us more alive in your faith, more generous in your love, more trusting in your hope. Teach us to imitate Jesus, as you did, and always to follow him with your courage.

Mother Mary, help us to become a people who hunger for justice and who burn with compassion for those who suffer in our midst. Make us a people who cherish and defend the dignity of every human person. Free us from all selfishness and self-interest, that we truly might be the builders of the Kingdom of God.

Immaculate Mary, help us to stand among the family of nations as a people of compassion, generosity and peace. Make us a people of vision and courage, who will gift this world with new life, new hope, and the unity for which your Son died.

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who turn with confidence to you today. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - Do What Needs to Be Done

A friend recently confided in me that although he prayed frequently each day and was involved heavily in his parish, he did not sense much fruit coming from it all and was left feeling unsatisfied. I assured him he was not alone. I told him of a deceased pastor of mine who had spoken frequently about being in this type of situation. Even as a priest, he knew all too well of how we can feel like we are simply going through the motions. It is precisely at those times that continuing to pray and practicing good stewardship is most important, because it would be easier to simply take a break and risk never coming back. He liked to say, "Do the drill," meaning just do what needs to be done.

We are all called to be mature disciples who answer the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We cannot choose when and where the call will come. We cannot schedule our stewardship in a way that is always most convenient for us. Even when the fruits of our faithful efforts seem hidden from us, we hold to the promise that we are never called to give of ourselves for nothing. God is working through us and in us. No matter how dry the land may seem, seeds are being planted to yield a harvest greater than we can ever realize. Stay strong and do the drill!
