GOOD AFTERNOON!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There are many things of which we can be afraid: being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. For some, identifying and overcoming their fears is a daunting task. Regardless of how much they may want to break the cycle of fear, they find that they remain close friends with old and dysfunctional behavioral habits and norms. Maybe what they really fear is change. There are many who gravitate to the familiar and comfortable, and find safety and security in doing so, even if they remain mired in mediocrity. Human beings have to learn that there is life beyond the “what has always been” and that happiness and depth are possible when old structures and systems have to be left behind.

Can you leave the near and dear, the comfortable and familiar, the safe and secure, and discover new opportunities? The sheer thought of doing so can bring on feelings of apprehension, intense anger, resentment, defensiveness, reluctance, resistance, and even apathy. If we have to be responsible for making the change, cowardice can creep in. If someone else is to blame for making the change, any number of possible negative reactions are possible. In the end, only one thing is required and that is God. If I can rely on and deepen my relationship with God, especially in the Eucharist along with a community of believers, then little else is of great concern. We have to figure out what is really important. It is not always what we think.

The Gospel calls us to stretch ourselves and try new things, not to remain stuck and stagnant in familiar ways. We are asked to live life more deliberately, radically, and intentionally. We are asked to leave the familiar behind and learn to live with changing, and often limiting, human structures. We cannot get too caught up in the physical, ideological, or structural systems we are used to. The Holy Spirit always leads and guides us. If we trust this, we will find ourselves doing things we never thought we could do. Always seek the path to joy and love. They keep us from falling victim to our fears and from seeking the nostalgic crutches we think we need to achieve a sense of well-being and happiness.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus knows that the challenges a disciple of the Gospel will face in the world are real. He tells all of us point blank, “Do not be afraid.” There are many things we can fear as we attempt to live the Gospel: unpopularity, being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. Many folks know that their faith calls them to live life more deliberately and radically but are cowards when it comes to putting it into practice. We easily justify sticking with the “acceptable” norms with which we are accustomed. These only serve to keep us stuck and mired in mediocrity. The Gospel — given flesh by the very presence of Christ — seeks to stretch, challenge, and change us. We do not have to fear anything, even death. Sometimes, living with our fears brings us a sadly disordered sense of comfort. Maybe what we really fear above all else is change.

The Sign of Peace

Question:

Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

Answer:

The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after we offer the Lord's Prayer. Inspired by the Jesus' words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: “Our Father who art in heaven...” In this prayer, we call for the coming of God's kingdom in all its fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — “Give us, this day, our daily bread” — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven.

It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ's peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ's peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, “Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

Dear Parish Family,

These words taken from the Gospel are words we have heard many, many times. Put into the context of the entire Gospel this line is just a small part of the message which Jesus is conveying. Yet these words have always been significant to me personally as they point out the loving care which the Father has for all creatures—including us, His children! It is comforting to know that the Father is aware of even the tiniest sparrow. Imagine that!

Words of comfort, indeed! After all, the Lord God knows our joys and sorrows, our worries and our concerns, our hopes and our dreams. These things are not unimportant or insignificant to Him. If His eyes are on the sparrow then imagine how His eyes are upon us.

There is a beautiful Gospel song which captures this wonderful reality by Mrs. Civilla D. Martin in 1905. One of the stanzas of this hymn says it perfectly:

“Let not your heart be troubled,”
His tender word I hear,
And resting on His goodness,
I lose my doubts and fears,
Tho' by the path He leadeth,
But one step I may see;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me.”

The next time you wonder of God is even aware of your situation be assured by the words from today's Gospel. He is! And His eyes are upon you looking with tender mercies and an unfathomable love!

We are never alone! We are God's own children and He is a good and faithful Father to all of us—even the sparrow!

Blessings,

Fr. Krizner, The Lily, Gracie, Cotton & 15 Fish

You are worth more than a whole flock of sparrows!

SOLEMNNITY OF THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

June 24th.

COLLECT PRAYER

from Mass:

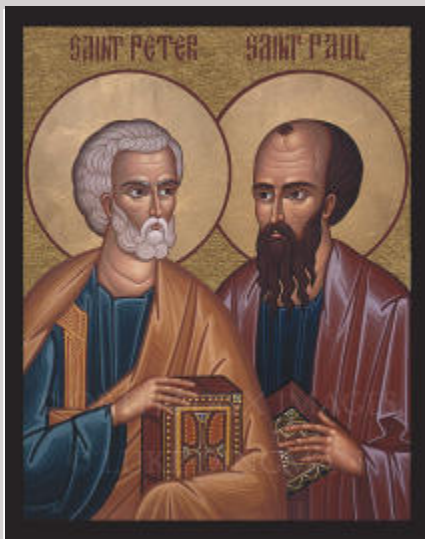

“Grant, we pray, almighty God, that your family may walk in the way of salvation and, attentive to what Saint John the Precursor urged, may come safely to the One he foretold, our Lord Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen”

June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus!

Jesus, meek and
humble of heart,
make my heart
like unto Thine!

Heart of Jesus, burning with love for all people, be ever mindful of Your people and the cry of the Church!
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus be ever present to us as we come before You with thanksgiving, reverence and love.

endeavor

If you have been to the Church in the last few weeks you have noticed the Baptistry area is open and is now much more of the Church proper. The cry room has been expanded and the restrooms are now separate from the original cry room.

We are truly pleased with the work that has been done and now look forward to a shovel in the ground to begin phase II. Thank you again to all who have given so generously to this project. The changes are necessary and the work has truly been excellently done! On to Phase II!

CDC

We continue to follow the guidelines set by the CDC, by the Governor, and by the Diocese of Cleveland and the Bishops of Ohio. We are moving in a slow but progressive manner and have taken absolutely every precaution to assure the safety and welfare of all of our parishioners.

So far all has gone smoothly and all are following the instructions set by our Ushers for entering and leaving the Church. PLEASE, please follow the directions of our Ushers!

Our maintenance crew is doing an excellent job of sanitizing the entire Church building after every liturgy. This comes as a task which is both time-consuming and expensive but every detail is attended to.

At this time we are asking that Sacrament Celebrations and Funerals be practically limited in number. Remember, only every other pew can be used and the 6 foot distancing still holds. Masks are strongly encouraged!

Our Church is not that large and a 'crowd' would be difficult to maintain by CDC standards.

As to Weekend Masses: If the church fills for any particular Mass then you would be ushered to the Hall which is set up for a televised version of the very Mass being celebrated in the Church.

Beginning with June 21st (this weekend) we have returned to our Saturday Schedule of the 4 pm Mass only. SUNDAY Mass Times are at 8, 10 and NOON! We will stay with this schedule for the summer! Weekday Masses are on Wednesday and Friday at 11a.m. unless pre-empted by a funeral.

Reconciliation

For those asking for the sacrament of Reconciliation:

Please join us for mass on Wednesday, June 24th at 11:00am and after Fr. Caesar will hear confessions for about an hour after mass. DUE TO OUR CLEANING SCHEDULE - NO SATURDAY CONFESSIONS

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Will You Say Yes?

You find yourself in the difficult situation of being accused of blasphemy and confronting possible execution. Your crime is believing in Jesus Christ. The question is then asked of you, "Are you a Christian, a follower of the one named Jesus Christ?" Your answer may very well dictate what happens to you next. What is your answer?

It is probably easier to answer this question when the scenario is make-believe. All of us want to believe that we would say yes to the question of belief in Jesus, but strange things happen when humans panic in the face of extreme stress. As we reflect on what we would say, there are those all over the world who are being asked that very same question. It is a question that was asked of many in the first centuries of the Church. Those who respond "yes" are considered martyrs and saints.

We might not usually think of all this in terms of good stewardship living. However, our faith is also a gift we have received from God to cultivate, grow, and share with others. The more interesting question than the one posed above is, "Would an accuser even think of asking you such a question?" Would you have cultivated, grown, and shared your faith enough that anyone would even consider you worthy of asking the question? They might assume you don't know Jesus Christ at all. I don't like conflict and do not seek out conflict, but I would rather someone ask the first question posed than assume there is no reason to confront me in the first place.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

You are our God— Faithful and true!

HAPPY FATHER'S Day!

Words become inadequate when we think of ways to say “Thank You” to our Dad, our Step-dads, our Grandfathers and to those men in our lives who have been a fatherly role-model. For your sacrifices, your generosity, your kindness, your care, your concern, your guidance, your witness of Faith, for your unending love— Thank You!

May God bless you and keep you
– May His face shine upon you and give you peace and may you know the boundless love of God
who is Father to us all!

...and to our fathers
and grandfathers in heaven we send
gratitude and love
with affectionate
memories— pray for us as you did while on earth....

The Daughters of St. Colette

We are still unable to hold our monthly meetings but we try to keep in touch through email and text messages. We always have requests for prayers and we remember those intentions when we meet on Thursday mornings at 11:00 at Wayside Shrine to say the Rosary together. All are welcome to pray with us. It is a very peaceful setting. Our only competition is the chirping birds!

Please bring a chair, if possible, so we can keep to social distancing.

“Come as a stranger, leave as a friend.”
