GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Calling Priests Father

Question:

Why do Catholics call priests Father?

Answer:

One of the common objections evangelical Christians have to Catholics is our practice of calling priests by the title Father. They will often cite a passage in Matthew's Gospel in which Jesus tells his followers: "Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven" (23:19). It seems pretty straightforward, but when we put this verse in context, we see that Jesus is speaking out against religious leaders who had forgotten what their proper role was and who were bad examples through their own hypocrisy and elitist attitudes.

In other Gospels, we find Jesus himself using the title father for different characters, such as in the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31) and the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). If we put the verse from Matthew into the full scope of Jesus' teachings, he isn't saying that we can't use words like "father," "rabbi," or "master." Rather, he is telling us that we should be mindful of the full meaning of those titles and not to misuse them.

To call a priest "Father" is more than a sign of respect for the office of the priesthood. It goes all the way back to the way St. Paul understood his own work as a missionary and evangelizer. Paul wrote, "I am writing you in this way not to shame you but to admonish you as my beloved children ... It was I who begot you in Christ Jesus through my preaching of the Gospel. I beg you, then, be imitators of me. This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 4:14-17).

Yes, we have God alone as our heavenly Father, but there are also those here with us who nurture and nourish our faith through their teaching and care. This is why the title of Father has been applied to the church's pastors in different ways since the earliest days of the Church, including monks and nuns using the title "abbot" and "abbess" (from abba) for their spiritual leaders and Christians around the world recognizing the "Holy Father" or "pope" (from papa) as the head of the family that is the Church. The title Father is a reminder that priests have a special responsibility to care for, protect, feed, listen to, and nourish those who have been entrusted to them, all after the example of our Father in heaven who never ceases to give us what we truly need.

PRAYER FROM BL MIGUEL PRO

"I believe, O Lord, but strengthen my faith... Heart of Jesus, I love Thee; but increase my love. Heart of Jesus, I trust in Thee; but give greater vigor to my confidence. Heart of Jesus, I give my heart to Thee; but so enclose it in Thee that it may never be separated from Thee. Heart of Jesus, I am all Thine; but take care of my promise so that I may be able to put it in practice even unto the complete sacrifice of my life."

AMEN

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?” What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the “small deaths” and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self- focused and closed.

The background of the entire page is a repeating pattern of American flags, showing the stars and stripes in a slightly overlapping, draped manner. The colors are vibrant red, white, and blue.

4th. of July!

Dear Parish Family,

So comes the 4th! After a bewildering Spring affected by a virus and in this early part of the Summer of 2020 we come to the celebration of American Independence. No matter how distressed this Nation may seem at times riddled by unrest and the desecration of the flag—even the destruction of a statue of George Washington—we are still a Nation which has preserved Freedom for well over 200 years. While the fireworks and the jubilation are all a part of the Celebration of the 4th what lies most important is that we, you and I, appreciate the freedom and cherish the country that so very many have given their lives for.

Amid the fireworks and firecrackers, amid the celebratory noise of the 4th we might consider taking a moment for a quiet, humble prayer of gratitude. I am not certain that the generations that have preceded us would recognize the turmoil of our Nation today but I am confident in the realization that they, each in their own way, helped to build the country that affords us liberty and the pursuit of happiness. On this coming 4th of July we honor them as well. The men and women of the American Revolution were fighting to bring birth to a Nation that was a novel, new idea. Their blood carved out the lands which comprise the United States of America and to them we owe ‘honor’.

Let’s pray together that the Nation is restored to the dignity and the excellence that has long been a hallmark of America. This Fourth let’s remember the men and women, our son and daughters and our friends of the United States Military, who stand guard over our freedoms. Let’s pray to for our Police and our First Responders who are always at our beck and call and who serve the needs of our cities and towns and villages. On this Fourth let’s be grateful for the Red, White and Blue—we honor the flag because so many have fought and died to preserve it for us today.

-Fr. Krizner

Our Schedule!

We have returned to a more normal and practical schedule for Mass on the weekends. We have certainly seen a gradual increase in attendance and have continued to keep the church and building sanitized before and after each Liturgy. We have also begun to use the parish hall for over-flow. While it is not quite the same as being in the Church it is the most that we can offer at this time.

Mass on Saturday is at 4 p.m.

Mass on Sundays is at 8, 10 and Noon.

What was the 11:45 has moved to Noon in order to allow ample time to sanitize the pews and building.

PLEASE, PLEASE follow the instructions of the Ushers! They have worked really hard to assure your safety. The plan that we have instituted for seating and the reception of Eucharist is the most practical and safe plan that we could arrive at. While some of you have a 'favorite seat' we will try to honor that but please understand that the interest of everyone is always to be considered and the ushers strive for practicality.

Beginning on Tuesday, July 14, Deacon Tom will be conducting a Communion Service at 7 p.m. This will happen every other Tuesday of the month. The Service will include the readings of the day, petitions, and the reception of Eucharist. Again, for those attending CDC standards must be observed.

Daily Mass remains on Wednesday and Friday at 11 a.m. providing there is not a funeral Mass of Resurrection or memorial celebration.

At the present time Confessions may be heard on Wednesday and Friday following the daily Mass. This will always be announced before the Liturgy depending on the availability of the priest.

Be patient with us. We are all working on this together for the benefit of the entire parish~ Thank you for your co-operation!

God Is Love

I was recently at a Catholic conference and had a conversation with someone living in the thick of Hollywood culture. He was Catholic and spoke of how hard it was to live out his faith amid tremendous temptation and negativity toward religion. He spoke about how going to daily Mass helped to keep him centered and stay strong in his faith. He was a great witness to living out one's faith in the face of disbelief.

One thing that he told me stood out above all the rest. He spoke of his engagement to his fiancé and how important it was to him that God was a major part of their relationship and their lives as individuals as well. He told me he said something to her like, "If you don't love Jesus more than you love me, this is never going to work." What an amazing and truly moving witness!

Songs and books are written about the intense longing one human being can have for another. We can describe another as meaning everything to us. We speak of wanting to offer our complete selves to our beloved. However, true love is about more than wanting to be with that person. It is about wanting that person to know a love even greater than theirs: the love of God. No love can last without God. My Hollywood friend knew this to be the case. He showed his true love for his wife-to-be by sharing more than himself — he shared the very One who created love.
