

Trinity Sunday

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

A well-choreographed dance can be truly inspirational. Each movement and step are interconnected, each contributing a piece of the unfolding artistic story. The beholder is caught up in the rhythms, music, and gestures, realizing that none are dispensable and all are necessary. The same is true of the Divine Dance of the Trinity. Each Person plays a part, using unique gestures and movements that are connected to the other Divine Partners. They tell a story of love. Every movement and step is born of love and flows on into eternity. The Divine Dance never ends.

God the Creator powerfully, yet with gentle love, leads. Creating and recreating, birthing and sustaining, He dances with the compassionate incarnate Son, guided by the breath of the Holy Spirit. They are three distinct Persons but move as One. On one hand, the cascading flow of their Presence appears motionless, yet on the other, flows and moves with effortless attention. They share one heart, one goal, and one purpose and invite all of creation to join in their dance, their joy.

The energy of the Trinity flows through all created things. It is a dance of the heart, not of the mind. It has to be experienced, not dissected, and contemplated, not understood. We stand in awe of the Divine Dance and find ourselves watching in amazement all that God creates and sustains. The dance continues in the majesty of a mountain, the power and wonder of an ocean, and the vastness of the universe. It moves in the cry of a newborn infant and in the soul of one who has been forgiven. It flows in the cry for justice and in the wounds of the oppressed. It circles through the changing of seasons, the cycles of birth and death, and the wisdom that one acquires when they love God.

The Dance never ends. Its movements and rhythms go on forever. The Trinitarian Dance sustains all things, endures all things, and brings hope. You are invited to dance. Don't just watch as if you were simply a spectator. Join in the dance and move as they move.

St. Augustine and the sea shell

“St Augustine of Hippo spent over 30 years working on his treatise De Trinitate [about the Holy Trinity], endeavoring to conceive an intelligible explanation for the mystery of the Trinity.

He was walking by the seashore one day contemplating and trying to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity when he saw a small boy running back and forth from the water to a spot on the seashore. The boy was using a sea shell to carry the water from the ocean and place it into a small hole in the sand.

Augustine approached him and asked, “My boy, what are doing?”

“I am trying to bring all the sea into this hole,” the boy replied with a sweet smile.

“But that is impossible, my dear child, the hole cannot contain all that water” said Augustine.

The boy paused in his work, stood up, looked into the eyes of the Saint, and replied, “It is no more impossible than what you are trying to do – comprehend the immensity of the mystery of the Holy Trinity with your small intelligence.”

Augustine was absorbed by such a keen response from that child, and turned his eyes from him for a short while. When he glanced down to ask him something else, the boy had vanished.

Some have said that it was an angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson on pride in learning. Through this story, the sea shell has become a symbol of St Augustine and the study of theology.” - wordpress.com

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today we celebrate the Divine dance, a perfectly choreographed interplay of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Together they dance and move as one though three unique Persons with distinctive, yet harmonious, patterns and steps. They provide a mirror into our soul. Within each one of us, the Divine dance continues, and the music of God’s love continues to inspire, sustain, and recreate us with every step and melody. Can you hear the music that the Triune God is playing? Where is the dance leading you? Our minds can never truly understand or know God. But our hearts can seek and find Him. From beginning to end, God is one and, at the same time, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. God’s holy Trinitarian dance is calling you to holiness. Join in and dance!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

What Is the Purpose of the Pope?

Question:

Why do Catholics have a pope?

Answer:

To answer the question of why Catholics have a pope, we have to pull the lens back and think about the very nature of the Church herself. According to the Nicene Creed (which is the statement of beliefs that we recite each Sunday at Mass), we profess that the Church is “one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.” These adjectives are called the marks of the Church, and they help us see that the Church is bigger than just our individual parish communities or even the Christians living in a particular region or country.

To help ensure that the community of disciples would remain united in a communion of love, Jesus entrusted the Apostles with special authority to teach, heal, and forgive sins in his name. And from among this group, Jesus chose Simon Peter to play a special role, designating him as the “rock” on which the Church was to be built (see Matthew 16:18-19; John 21:15-17). Peter “the Rock” became the visible sign of union within and among the Apostles. In time, as Peter and the other Apostles passed away, other men were chosen to take their place. The successors of St. Peter — who we honor as the first Bishop of Rome — and the successors of the other Apostles (the bishops) continued the work entrusted by Jesus to that first generation of Church leaders.

According to long-standing tradition, the successor of Peter was Linus, who was followed by Cletus, who was followed by Clement I, etc. This line of succession continues to Pope Francis in our own time.

Over the centuries, these Bishops of Rome — who came to be known as the “pope” (from papa, which means “father” in Latin) — still continue to act as the “rock” of the Church and as the visible sign of unity for all the Catholic Christians. The pope, more than any other bishop, stands as the Church’s primary teacher and as pastor of the Church throughout the world, helping to ensure that the Church remains what Jesus intended her to be: one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. To learn more, see the “Catechism of the Catholic Church” (no. 857-862 and 880-882).

Glen Stout, Head Usher, conducted a meeting before our Opening Masses. An intricate part and member of the meeting was GRACIE who refused to move!

Dear Parish Family,

So our first weekend back was a warm, welcoming and somewhat exciting beginning! It was so good to see so many of you! My thanks again to the staff, Sara & music ministry including Cindy, Todd and Ralph, to the Deacon, the ushers under the direction of Glen Stout, lectors. Extraordinary Ministers, Renate, our sacristan and to Rob Saunders and Noah Schrader for the work put into streaming the Mass and on-line Masses, to our cleaning crew: Bill, A.J. and Vincent and to all and everyone that was involved with the Pentecost Opening of the Church! As I mentioned at Mass many hours went into preparation and the meetings were endless but it all worked out to the safety, welfare, and contentment of all!

We will continue two Masses on Saturday unless we find that the 6 pm is not necessary. We will also continue to live stream the Sunday Masses in the hopes that soon there will be some end to the virus! May God have mercy on us and on the whole world.

At the mailing of this bulletin it has been a tragic few days all across our Nation. When one thought we could not be more divided something rises that separates us all the more. Peace is such a fragile luxury in a world where peace is constantly challenged, tested, disputed, and, often enough replaced by argument, disagreement, and madness! COVID-19 was enough to turn our world upside down and now we are living confusing and distressing events that have sorely divided parts of our nation. Jesus promised His gift of peace 'not as the world gives it' - the peace Jesus offers is our solid faith in Him and our reliance on His mercy and love. May the Spirit move our hearts and minds towards that peace and may God in His mercy bring peace and harmony back to our Nation.

In your prayers remember the needs of those who have asked our prayers. Pray for the victims of COVID-19 and the victims of violence. Beg the God of peace for peace!

As you are more comfortable please join us in Church—it is only together that we, the People of God, are Church!

Fr. Krizner, The Lily, Gracie, Cotton & 15 fish!

With deepest sympathy

In hope of eternal life,
which God, that cannot lie,
promised before the world began.

Titus 1:2

Our prayers are extended to Sara and to the Gresko Family in the loss of Sara's grandmother, Betty. May she know the love and joy of being with God whom she loved so very much. 'I am the Resurrection and Life!'

First Holy Communion is scheduled for next Saturday. After several meetings with staff we have arrived at what we consider the safest, most practical and respectful manner of presenting our young ones with Eucharist. In order to achieve this we are doing two First Communion Masses. While this is a personal event for the second graders it is a parish blessing and grace as well! Please remember the class in your prayers as they grow nearer to their Sacramental Encounter with the Lord!

Prayer of St. Francis for Peace!

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Where is that guy with the rainbow wig holding a “John 3:16” sign in the end zone at NFL football games? Younger readers may not have any idea what I am talking about! You used to see this guy on TV all the time wearing “Jesus Saves” shirts and holding his sign. Most thought he was a harmless guy, but now he is serving multiple life sentences for taking hostages at a hotel near LAX in 1992. His name is Rollen Stewart and he believed — and continues to believe while in prison — that Jesus’ second coming is imminent. His extreme actions were meant to make people take notice and listen to him. Now he sits behind bars, and most in the world see his name as nothing more than an answer to a trivia question.

It is a sad story when people hurt others or use extreme methods in the name of God. Mr. Stewart’s belief that simply getting people to listen to his message is the most important step in their salvation is misguided. His poor stewardship should stand in stark contrast to our good stewardship. Our actions, seasoned at times with our words, should be the evidence people need to see the transformative power of Jesus Christ. We do believe that he is indeed coming again. But once you have committed yourself to him and live in his life on earth, when he returns is not our main concern. We are ready whenever that time comes, and hopefully, we can help others be ready as well by our example.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Daughters of St. Colette

It is such a beautiful, peaceful setting at Wayside Shrine, and it is so comforting to come together to pray, that we have decided to gather there every Thursday morning at 11:00 to say the Rosary. Everyone is welcome to join us on Thursdays throughout the summer, beginning on June 11th. Please bring your own chair if possible, so we can keep separate from each other. Use your own judgment about attending if there is bad weather because this will only be held outdoors.

Thank you to Kris May for cleaning and setting up the flowers around Our Lady at Wayside Shrine. DOSC has volunteered to maintain the flowers. Members, when you are visiting, please give TLC where needed. Thank you!

“Come as a stranger, leave as a friend.”

FOR PEACE

Lord God, our Father,
you seek the welfare of your children
and not their destruction:
direct our wills towards the peace
for which we yearn;
and let there be peace among the nations,
peace in our land,
peace in our homes,
and peace in our hearts.

The Family Prayer Book, 2013

Sanctuary Candle

Parishioners are able to have the Sanctuary Candle lit for their intentions. The candle cost is $5.00 and it usually burns for about a week. The forms are available in the Parish Office or you can call the Parish Office at 330.273.5500 to purchase one over the phone. We cannot guarantee when the candle will be lit. When your candle is lit, it will be written on the white board in the Mary Chapel and also appear in the bulletin.
