

...and so it is Lent

Good Morning !

Good Afternoon!

Dear Parish Family,
And so we begin
another Lent together...
An opportunity to draw ourselves closer to the Lord Jesus Christ! Lent comes as a challenge—
we are called/invited to
'give up something', do something, change bad habits and eliminate those 'parts of our lives'

that have distracted us from the relationship that we know we should have with the Lord—and with others.

Like most opportunities it is up to you to take advantage of it in a practical and sensible way. Don't overburden yourself with promises that you cannot keep for the next 40 days. It's often the small things that we do that have the greatest meaning. We cannot impose Lent on others—not even our family. We lead by example and by prayerful witness. Be the person who encourages, who supports, who inspires others and exemplifies the 'WAY' that Jesus leads us to the Father.

Though the Church is draped in purple and appears rather barren Lent is not a time of gloom and sadness! It is the Season that leads us to the Glory and brightness of Easter. Yes, we will travel together through the Passion and Death of Jesus but the Gospel does not end in tragedy—it ends in Glory!

Make the best of these days of opportunity. Find the hope and solace, the wonder and the peace in a deepening relationship with the Lord! Your Easter will be all the more brilliant if you have adequately prepared for the astonishing news that 'He is Risen!'

Fr. Krizner, The Lily and Gracie

What to Give Up...

Give up complaining ...	focus on Gratitude
Give up pessimism ...	become an Optimist
Give up worry ...	trust Divine Providence
Give up bitterness ...	turn to Forgiveness
Give up hatred ...	return Good for evil
Give up negativism ...	be Positive
Give up anger ...	be More Patient
Give up pettiness ...	become Mature
Give up gloom ...	enjoy the Beauty all around you
Give up jealousy ...	pray for Trust
Give up gossiping ...	control your Tongue
Give up sin ...	turn to Virtue
Give up giving up ...	Hang in there!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

At times, temptation seems so powerful that it is almost impossible to resist. How can I be stronger in my resolve to avoid sin and temptation?

Answer:

The saints have written that every human person desires the good. In a sense, we don't desire sin itself. Temptation is powerful because there is at least some bit of good in it. Even in the blackest of sin, there is something good that becomes twisted. We can look for good in sin when we feel it is lacking in our own life. When we lack true relational intimacy, it can be easy to turn to lust. When we lack confidence in God in our own lives, it can be easy to judge others or to grasp for control over situations. When we lack peace in the present moment, it can be easy to compete with others or to treat others poorly in our quest for success.

Overcoming temptation isn't just about repressing our sinful desires. If that's all we do, they'll just burst out someplace else! If there is a recurring temptation in your life, prayerfully consider why this is so appealing to you. Submit this to God and bring it to a wise person. And in the meantime, continue to resist temptation to sin. If we fail to choose God in small choices, we're several steps down the road towards failing in larger ones. Pray for the grace to persevere!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As we enter into this Lenten season of penance and self-denial, we're reminded that the God we follow is no stranger to these things. In this Sunday's Gospel, we see the temptations of Jesus which have parallels throughout Scripture and in our own lives. The apostle John warns against temptations to sensual lust, enticement of the eyes, and a pretentious life (cf. 1 John 2:16). Before Eve plucks the fruit from the tree, she hears it is good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom (cf. Genesis 3:6). The temptations of Jesus are our own.

"Turn these stones to bread." Here is the lure of bodily comfort, like good food or sensual lust. It's the simplest of temptations because it's instinctual. We want good for our bodies! But there may be times these bodily goods don't serve the higher good for our souls. The leap "from the temple parapet" would entice the eye of the person watching. A feat like this would prove Jesus' Messianic ability. His popularity could be a shortcut to the cross. We might not be daredevils, but we want people to like us and be impressed by us. Do we sacrifice our values along the way? To "bow and worship" the devil - and so claim power and a pretentious life - seems like a dramatic temptation. Not everyone may feel enticed by power in the professional sense, but all of us want control. A volunteer team can feel just as intense as the boardroom! How often do we prefer to be in control of our lives (and perhaps even the lives of others), rather than allow God to be God?

When we consider areas of temptation and sin, it's not to feel ashamed. The temptation in the desert reminds us that we are not alone and that the strength of Jesus can be our strength, too.

“Let no one mourn that he has fallen again and again:
for forgiveness has risen from the grave!” *St. John Chrysostom

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Temptation is a part of our lives. Even Jesus wrestled with temptation. Our faith tells us that we are meant to live our lives in service of God's kingdom. Yet, we often find ourselves pursuing our own desires rather than God's. The Gospel clearly tells us that true power is found in the embrace of virtue - living lives of non-violence, mercy, and forgiveness. Yet, we still are not convinced and seek things that will hurt us and retaliate against those who harm us. When Jesus faced temptation, he found security in who he was, which firmly rooted him in his mission and gave him the determination to trust in God. We, too, must learn to find security in our identity as a son or daughter of God, to live out our mission rooted in that truth, and to be confident in God's abiding presence.

Fasting and Abstinence

A reminder....

. Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between the ages of 18 to 59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self denial that are suitable to their condition.

SPRING IS COMING!

“Do you remember the Shire, Mr. Frodo? It'll be spring soon. And the orchards will be in blossom. And the birds will be nesting in the hazel thicket. And they'll be sowing the summer barley in the lower fields... and eating the first of the strawberries with cream.” - from the Lord of the Rings

SPRING BEGINS MARCH 20th @ 5:58 Pm. EDT

A personal reflection....

BRING YOUR CHILDREN TO CHURCH DURING THESE DAYS OF LENT!

Growing up at St. Catherine's Church in Cleveland, Lent had a significance that no other time of the year could equal. It was not a matter of 'giving up' candy or gum that made it different than the other months of the year. There was just 'something' about Lent and the remembrance of Christ's Passion and Death that made us realize how much HE loved us!

There was certainly the advantage of going to a Parochial School and being taught by Nuns that added to the solemn tone of Lent. Perhaps it was the anticipation of Easter and the Resurrection of Jesus that made these days so special, Maybe it was just the influence of my parents and family who offered a constant reminder that we were in Lent. Whatever the reasons Lent was indeed something special

In some ways we may have lost some of that. After all, with the busyness and duties within a family who would take time on a Wednesday (or Friday) evening to GO to Stations of the Cross? There are just too many other things to do! After a full day of work or school—who really has time to pray the Stations?

Daily Mass is less than a half-hour but there are things to be done around the house and meals to prepare and chores to be tackled. Of course there is always a Tuesday Evening Mass—but then again the day has been busy and challenging—and it is still winter!

Lent is only Lent if you allow it to be! I have mentioned from the pulpit that it is not to be considered a gloomy, sad time. We are in anticipation of the Resurrection! Can there be a greater spiritual joy than that of Easter!

If we allow these 40 days to simply go by until Easter Sunday then it is we who are missing out!

Use these days to deepen your prayer life, to offer some sacrifice, to try to celebrate a daily Mass or Communion Service or Stations. Bring your family. Take the time now to mark the events of Holy Week. We are nearly a month away from Palm Sunday –April 14th. Plan now to join our parish family on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday/Easter.

What we do with these days of Lent is entirely up to us. We can do much or do nothing. Begin a family tradition and COME AND SEE WHAT THE LORD HAS DONE FOR US!

Let it be a Happy and Holy and Memorable Lent! Fr. K.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It will take too long. I can't spare it. I don't know anybody. I am just too busy.

How many excuses can you think of to put forth as reasons why you should say no to the call of Jesus Christ? Wait. You didn't know to whom those responses were directed? We say no to many things and many people, but we wouldn't say no to Jesus. Really?

During this Lenten season, like all the other seasons, we will be asked to respond in many different ways. There will be fasting, almsgiving, and abstinence from certain foods. There will be invitations to various devotions and formational studies. We will be asked to reflect on our faith and then dive deeper.

The argument will be made by some that many of these things are being asked of us by others and not Jesus. Of course, that will just be another excuse like those above. For every calling upon us comes with a temptation to take the easy way out or to minimize the value of the request.

We will stay caught up in an endless cycle of excuses that lead us nowhere. That is unless we simply choose to stop the madness and say YES! This Lent, give up and give in. Let God take over as you surrender all you are and have to Him. Now is the time to turn to Jesus. No more excuses.

The next Cleveland Retrouvaille Weekend is scheduled for March 22-24, 2019

This is a Lifeline for Troubled Marriages
Has your marriage become unloving or uncaring – your relationship cold, distant – thinking about a separation or divorce? Are you already separated/divorced but both of you want to try again? Then the Retrouvaille program may help.

RETROUVAILLE, which means rediscovery, is supported by the Catholic diocese of Cleveland, but it is open to couples of all faiths. This program consists of a weekend experience for couples and six follow up sessions. A registration fee of $150 is required to confirm your reservation. For more information concerning the program, or to register, please call Marce or Liz Gliha at 440.357.6580 or 1.800.470.2230, or go online to www.helpourmarriage.org.

Prayer for Priests

O my Jesus, I beg You on behalf of the whole Church: Grant it love and the light of Your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to You, O Lord.

Lord, give us holy priests; You Yourself maintain them in holiness. O Divine and Great High Priest, may the power of your mercy accompany them everywhere and protect them from the devil's traps and snares which are continually being set for the souls or priests. May the power of Your mercy, O Lord, shatter and bring to naught all that might tarnish the sanctity of priests, for You can do all things. AMEN.
