March 3, 2024
3rd Sunday of Lent

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus was not afraid to confront iniquity wherever he encountered it, and his zeal for righteousness was so strong it looked like anger as he drove the moneychangers from the temple. Pray that, with that same devotion and care, he will cleanse our hearts from sin. ©LPI

The weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

1 Corinthians 1:25

1. You shall have no other Gods before me
2. You shall not make for yourselves an idol
3. You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God
4. Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy
5. Honor your father and your mother
6. You shall not murder
7. You shall not commit adultery
8. You shall not steal
9. You shall not give false testimony
10. You shall not covet

Anointing of the Sick the First Friday of every month after the 11am Mass beginning March 1st! Come experience the healing grace of this powerful sacrament. Our God give us seven extraordinary ways to be close to him through the sacrament. Take advantage of this monthly offering of Anointing for anyone in need of physical, mental, and spiritual healing. This sacrament may be received at any time, and more than once.

Prayer of Surrender

Dear Lord,
Help me to place You
in the center of my
plans for the future,
my dreams for my life, my goals for the time ahead. Be my
God and my guide.
Amen. ©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

End of Mass

Question:

Is it ever ok to leave Mass before it ends?

Answer:

This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to "Go forth" during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others.

If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass. ©LPi

A Prayer For Lenten Grace

Loving God,
As I enter this sacred season of Lent, please bring me closer to You.
Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may rediscover the grace of a prayer-full life.
Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well being of body and soul and remind me of the grace of simplicity.
Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and in doing so, rediscover the grace of gratitude and generosity.
May this Lenten season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in You. Amen.

SERVE

Last week the Confirmation Class made sandwiches for the homeless, donating to the St. Ambrose PB&J Brigade. They had a great time in fellowship and service. Keep our young people in your prayers as they make their Spirit Day Retreat today 3/3! Confirmation Day is May 16th. Come, Holy Spirit!

Don't forget about Dylan and Zoey! Two of the 15 students from Brunswick a part of the 2024 Students Visionaries of the Year Program, Dylan is making his Confirmation this May, and both he and Zoey are active in our Youth Ministry program. This Lenten Season, please join them to help support the efforts of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. By donating in any amount, you are supporting the programs and critical research LLS is doing.

Donations needed by March 8th!

Check: Please make all checks payable to "The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society" and print "Brunswick for a Brighter Future" in the Memo section. Checks can be mailed to Zoey Fuller at 5110 Wakerly Circle Brunswick 44212 or Dylan Buzzelli at 319 Glendorn Drive Brunswick, OH 44212
