GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities — things they won't be able to see, babies they won't be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve again. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets.

This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God's eternal kingdom and in God's time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity. What greater joy, love, and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world.

This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It's all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It's about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

This was our Spring Garden which Ruthann Dolin planted for us last Fall. It was filled with Hyacinth, Tulips, and, yet to come, Lilies. It has been a refreshing and spectacular sight through these days of lockdown! And now it is being visited by two ducks. Welcome!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What do you imagine the resurrected life of heaven to be like? When we try to get our minds around such an enormous concept, we can easily find ourselves at a loss. For some folks, the enormity of the question actually causes them to ignore the reality of heaven or even conclude that it does not exist. Jesus knew that the magnitude and grandeur of eternal life are really too much for us to grasp. He kept it simple and described it in terms of relationship. The disciples treasured their relationship with Jesus, and he assured them, "Where I am you also may be." Ultimately, that was enough for them to know. They would be with him. Strengthen your relationship with God as He is the way, the truth, and the life. Is the assurance that you will be with Him enough for you as well?

Happy Mother's Day

Dear Parish Family,

These days of COVID-19 have prevented us from celebrating so many things, namely, Easter, itself! Now we come to Mother's Day and we are left to send blessings over the air—through the bulletin, through our video Masses and certainly through our thoughts and prayers. It is our hope that this day is a day spent with love and a day noted for our deep appreciation for all that our Mother's have done for us and continue to do!

What an extraordinary time this has been! Even as we draw nearer to the light at the end of the tunnel there are concerns, considerations and worries. We are all so eager to be together and to be about the ordinary things of living our lives to the fullest! But we cannot give up hope yet! There is always the promise of better days ahead (though at times it sounds cliché!)

I have noticed that the pets are affected by these long separations! Once the office staff leaves each day Lily and Grace seem to go into a slump and I can't help but think that they are wondering 'where have all the people gone?'

I want to thank those who continue to assist us with our Website and Face Book Masses and devotions. Rob Saunders is our videographer, Tom Bonezzi is our fill-in organist and vocalist, Sara continues to lead us in song and praise, Lisa our Pastoral Minister is also our regular lector along with A.J. Fuller who we have stolen from Maintenance to assist in our Liturgies and most anything else needed throughout the day! Thanks also to our Guitarist, Todd Schrader and to our Bass player, Ralph Holstein and certainly to our Deacon Tom who is always eager to be of service! While it is not the same as being together it is still Mass and an opportunity to worship together regardless of the miles.

We send blessings to you and prayers. Know that you are in our thoughts!

May the God of Mercy, the Shepherd of Love fill your hearts and minds with peace, joy, and His Presence.

Witnesses for Jesus

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough, but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking.

What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen.

As the weather is starting to warm, we are asking again about the maintenance of our Stations of the Cross located at the Wayside Shrine.

If you maintained a Station last year, please call the church office to let us know if you will be available for your station again this year. Thank you to those who have called already.

Anyone interested in maintaining a Station can also call the office and we will put you on a waiting list. If a Station becomes available, we will call you.

Sanctuary Candle

Parishioners are able to have the Sanctuary Candle lit for their intentions. The candle cost is $5.00 and it usually burns for about a week. The forms are available in the Parish Office or you can call the Parish Office at 330.273.5500 to purchase one over the phone. We cannot guarantee when the candle will be lit. When your candle is lit, it will be written on the white board in the Mary Chapel and also appear in the bulletin.

Prayer for Mothers

Mary, Mother of God and our Mother, pray for all mothers, so that they will be able to fulfill their maternal responsibilities. Help them to be lovers and nurturers of all human life from the moment of conception until natural death, all the while being examples for their own children. Pray for their children, so that they too, will be faithful followers of your Son.

We offer these prayers in Jesus' name, in union with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Please pray for those serving in the
