The Easter season is nearly over....and what a remarkable season it has been. The Solemn Liturgies of Holy Week, the joyous Celebration of the Easter Vigil, the Easter Sunday Masses are all but a memory now....a memory of an empty Church building while hearts and souls kept holy these days in the quiet of their homes. There wasn't even a food blessing! Let's continue our prayers that nothing like this will ever happen again. It was and still is Eastertide. The Lord has Risen, He has Risen, indeed! May our hearts rejoice in His Presence as we await the Promised One, The Holy Spirit! Peace!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Everlasting Easter

The Easter season is almost over. This season is always a tougher one for us Catholics. We get Advent and Lent: preparation. We are on board with Christmas, mainly because we like to keep up our decorations until someone tells us the exact day we must take them down. But Easter as a season is a bit more difficult to observe. The rest of the world has moved on. There are no Easter eggs left in store windows and all those religious movies on television have given way to reruns or season-ending episodes. It just feels like Easter anywhere ... except in the Church.

The truth is that it should feel like Easter all year-round in the Church. Every Sunday, we celebrate a mini-Easter. Our Lord is ALIVE! He is risen and alive, and we need to celebrate. We also need to be about the work of the Lord. We are an Easter people who bear witness to his resurrection through our stewardship. If he had never risen, then we would be called to nothing by no one. But he lives! As this Easter season is drawing to a close, it is prudent to reflect on what his death and resurrection mean for each of us. How has it changed us? How does it motivate us? It doesn't look like Easter in most corners of the world, so it is up to us to bring a little Easter to every place we go and to everyone we meet.

The Ascension of the Lord, Jesus Christ!

Dear Parish,
So we near now the conclusion of the Easter Season as we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. As He goes we are left with His promises, ‘I will not leave you orphaned....I will return to you...I will send you another, the Paraclete, who will instruct you in all that you need to know’!

Our God is a God who holds true to His Promises. We are not alone—we are never alone.

I have always found the Feast of the Ascension to be somewhat melancholy. We want to hold on to the physical presence of the Lord...we want Him to stay just as He is—in our midst, one among us. But His words come as reassurance: ‘If I do not go the Spirit will not come to you’. And so the apostles along with Mary and others go to the upper room as instructed and wait for the Promised Spirit and when the Spirit comes so begins the Church!

How marvelous are the designs of God!

One of the most beautiful parts of the Ascension (for me) is the question which the angels pose to the Apostles, ‘Why are you standing here looking up to the sky?’ A reassurance that He will come again...but for now go back down the mountain and live all that He taught you and all that you were witness too. I think the question remains for us: there is no point in looking up to the sky for His return—He is here in so many ways—through the Scriptures, through the Sacraments, through the Church and through you and me. The world is waiting for us to proclaim the good news, the news of truth and beauty, of wonder and awe! The Lord is Risen from the dead and has taken His place at the right hand of the Father in the Kingdom that we pray to someday be a part of—but for now there is work for us to do because we are His Church!

Fr. Krizner

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What does faith and religion do for us? Ultimately, they remind us of some truths we conveniently forget: we are created by a loving God, we have imperfections, we sin, we need to be forgiven, we have a mission and a purpose, it's not just about us, and we hunger for the joy of salvation. These are human truths that are not dependent upon whether we like them. Ignoring them places us on the paths of comfort and satisfaction as we blindly pursue the busyness and superficiality of our empty lives. Instead of pursuing supernatural and lasting pleasure, we choose things that are easier and quicker to obtain: sex, drugs, travel, houses, cars, fame, popularity, self-achievement and satisfaction, physical enjoyment, and the like.

We may also find ourselves falling victim to more negative responses to what life brings us: anger, envy, lust, pride, gluttony, greed, and apathy. Human hearts can become so hardened to the truth that violence becomes the response of first choice. Being a Christian is hard! Yet, as Pope Francis reminds us, the Church needs to be a field hospital that has to be prepared to provide people with the remedy they need. What we need is Jesus Christ. The Church, with all of the glory of the sacraments, exists to help make Christ present and real for us. Once we find Christ, we find joy. Joy is a matter of the heart that is beyond pleasure and happiness. It is not found in some earthly satisfaction, only in Christ.

Once we accept that we are destined to be in Christ, then we will discover eternal life. Namely, "that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." It is easy to conveniently forget truth and pursue illusions immediately within our grasp, but at what price? A man celebrating 60 years of marriage remarked that it took so much effort and so many attempts to convince his wife that they were meant to be together. Even his friends told him he was foolish. He easily could have given up and pursued other interests. He chose to persevere and is so grateful that he made that choice because he now has a pearl of great price. Do we see a value in persevering in our faith regardless of the cost? If we don't take the risk, we could lose more than we know.

What a privilege it is for us to be able to remember the men and women of our Nation's history who gave their lives to preserve the freedom we enjoy today. It is our honor and our privilege to offer this day in testimony to the valiant sacrifices so very, very many made for the USA! No imagination can muster up what courage and bravery moved through the minds and hearts of those who fought for our liberty. There is no way to adequately repay them or thank them for their service other than being the best citizens that we can be: to love our country, to hold fast to the principles of our founders, to support our military and to be thankful that we live in the great nation of the United States of America.

On this day pay honor and tribute to the fallen and respect and gratitude to those who presently serve!

God Bless America!

The Daughters of St. Colette

It looks like Spring is finally here and we would love get together for prayer! Everyone is welcome to say the Rosary outdoors with us on Thursday, May 28th at 11:00am, at St. Colette's Wayside Shrine. Please bring your own chair, if possible, so we can observe social distancing.

A small group of members of DOSC and the Spiritual Committee held a May Crowning at Wayside Shrine on a beautiful morning, the feast of Our Lady of Fatima. Many thanks to Lillian Morisky, who made the crown, Marilyn Shabbick, who provided the song sheets, and Marilyn's daughter, Suzanne Keller, who led us in the singing! Thanks to all who stopped by later in the day to honor our Blessed Mother.

"Come as a stranger, leave as a friend."

Please pray for those serving in the Military
