GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"But the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps." The foolish versus the wise. Today's parable sets these two groups in stark contrast to one another. Two crowds of young women wait for a wedding feast. One group comes prepared for the unexpected, the other just assumes everything will go according to schedule. But it doesn't! The Bridegroom is late, and the foolish virgins are left out in the dark--literally--while the wise ones enjoy the feast inside.

The lesson here is not just about having foresight and gathering the corresponding equipment. It's about being ready for the second coming of Christ. Jesus himself is the "Bridegroom." Traditionally we refer to the Church as the "Bride of Christ" and we, as the people of God who constitute the Church, are even now awaiting the real feast, the culmination of time when Jesus returns. But are we standing among the wise or the foolish as we wait?

Jesus tells us today, "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Are we spiritually awake? Do we have extra oil to see us through, or are we hitting the bottom of the barrel and running on spiritual fumes so to speak? Do we think it's enough to do the bare minimum as we wait for Christ--stepping into church without really being present, or calling ourselves Christian without really taking up the challenge of the cross? In order to avoid standing outside the feast with the foolish, we will want to make sure we fill our flasks with oil or, in other words, fill our hearts with the love of God, fill our minds with his word and his teachings, and fill our souls with the virtues that unite us to his will. If we stock up on these important supplies, we can count ourselves among the wise. -LPI

One day a year to say 'Thank You' never seems to be enough. Our gratitude must be expressed by more than a nod or a quick, 'hey thanks!'. Gratitude must be lived out every single day because goodness abounds all around us and there is truly always something or someone to be thankful for....

Just thinking out loud ---

I have always been puzzled by Thanksgiving. It's that holiday stuck between Halloween and Christmas—a one day affair which involves greetings, eatings, and TV. Now it is followed by Black Friday—a mad rush for bargains which inevitably involves people pushing, shoving, and forgetting that yesterday was Thanksgiving & that they are actually purchasing gifts for Christmas.

However the strangest part of Thanksgiving (to me) is the fact that we have set aside one day to be Grateful. What does that mean? Each and every day there are kindnesses that ABOUND all about me (and hopefully, you). The smiles, the words of encouragement, the sincere expressions of friendship and love, the little things that others do without complaint or bitterness, the good people who hold doors for others, say 'Hello' or offer help when help is needed....these are all things that happen every day—and so everyday I need to be grateful and express that gratitude by word or a return of the good that has been given to me. While this is a National Holiday, and I truly love my country –though it is so terribly divided I felt it important to retrace the history behind this day. So I went to History.com for a refresher on how Thanksgiving Becomes an Official Holiday:

“Pilgrims held their second Thanksgiving celebration in 1623 to mark the end of a long drought that had threatened the year’s harvest and prompted Governor Bradford to call for a religious fast. Days of fasting and thanksgiving on an annual or occasional basis became common practice in other New England settlements as well. During the American Revolution, the Continental Congress designated one or more days of thanksgiving a year, and in 1789 George Washington issued the first Thanksgiving proclamation by the national government of the United States; in it, he called upon Americans to express their gratitude for the happy conclusion to the country’s war of independence and the successful ratification of the U.S. Constitution. His successors John Adams and James Madison also designated days of thanks during their presidencies. In 1817, New York became the first of several states to officially adopt an annual Thanksgiving holiday; each celebrated it on a different day, however, and the American South remained largely unfamiliar with the tradition. In 1827, the noted magazine editor and prolific writer Sarah Josepha Hale—author, among countless other things, of the nursery rhyme “Mary Had a Little Lamb”—launched a campaign to establish Thanksgiving as a national holiday. For 36 years, she published numerous editorials and sent scores of letters to governors, senators, presidents and other politicians. Abraham Lincoln finally heeded her request in 1863, at the height of the Civil War, in a proclamation entreating all Americans to ask God to “commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife” and to “heal the wounds of the nation.” He scheduled Thanksgiving for the final Thursday in November, and it was celebrated on that day every year until 1939, when Franklin D. Roosevelt moved the holiday up a week in an attempt to spur retail sales during the Great Depression. Roosevelt’s plan, known derisively as Franksgiving, was met with passionate opposition, and in 1941 the president reluctantly signed a bill making Thanksgiving the fourth Thursday in November.”

SO HAPPY THANKSGIVING to you as we take our National Holiday to recognize the goodness of God and the abundance that most of us share in. For this one day in November we gather together to say thanks to the Lord, to our families, our friends and to one another. By the way THANK YOU!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Are we ready and prepared for what life will ask of us? The answers to life's challenges, especially those that involve purpose, meaning, and happiness are not found in material things or by searching the Internet. Many things in life require a journey of the heart and the acquisition of wisdom. When one acquires wisdom, one acquires priceless wealth. Sadly, pursuing wisdom is not valued by our world these days. Examining our lives, pondering the bigger questions, reflecting on where we have been and where we are going, are invaluable exercises that not only bring us wisdom but open our eyes to God's presence. Those who seek wisdom shall not be disappointed and will always be ready for whatever comes their way.

Just a winter's weather reminder:

When the Brunswick Schools are closed we will not have a daily Mass. This is to ensure your own safety and we often need the extra time to clear the drive, the lot, and the walk ways. We do our best but safety is an important consideration.

DID YOU KNOW?

"Squanto, the beloved hero of Thanksgiving, was the Native American man who mediated between the Puritan Pilgrims and the Native Americans. Squanto had been enslaved by the English but he was freed by Spanish Franciscans. Squanto thus received baptism and became a Catholic. So it was a baptized Catholic Native American who orchestrated what became known as Thanksgiving."

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

November is called the month of All Souls. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

Answer:

November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory. While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing towards perfection before meeting our perfect God face-to-face.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

'I am the way, the truth, and LIFE!

Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Saints of God, intercede for us. Pray that we be made worthy of the promises of Christ, that we too may one day share eternal life in heaven. Amen.

Dear Parish Family,

Thank you to the Members of the Holy Name Society for a wonderful Pancake Breakfast with all the fixins! Thank you for coming to the breakfast—your support helps the HNS to do a lot of good things for the parish and for the Church.

Thanks to the Daughters for this BAKE SALE Weekend!!! *I still believe the Atrium should be turned into a permanent bakery and coffee shop!

You will also notice that the Lily & Grace Gift Shop is decked out for the coming holidays. There's a great selection of Christmas cards, Nativity Scenes, Snowmen (people) and some great children's books. Just a reminder that it is difficult to restock after Christmas items have been sold so don't hesitate to check out your parish Gift Shop.

If you were at the 10 a.m. Mass last weekend you met Father Frank from the Cameroon. He is a friend of Fr. Julius and is visiting with relatives in our parish, the Azap Family. Father is presently in the Cameroon but will be returning to the U.S. for a couple of weeks. Look for him to celebrate a few of our Masses during his stay. WELCOME!*

Last week was a 'time off' for me and I am grateful to Deacon Tom for filling in and for Fr. Bob McWilliams from St. Joseph's who celebrated last Friday's Mass. It was good to be away before the Advent/Christmas rush. As I have mentioned so many times—the months of November and December fly by with all kinds of activities and the anticipation of Christmas. This year we will again include our Parish Advent Calendar in the bulletin—something that we can share in together!

In your prayers please remember those who are ill and those seeking the healing mercy of our Father.

May your week be blessed and may you know the personal love that the Lord has for you!

Fr. Krizner, The Lily and Gracie!

The bulletin is printed on Tuesdays before the weekend that they are handed out. Often we would like to include news that is relevant but because of the time constraint we cannot. With that said, though it happened last Sunday, we send our prayers and thoughts to the members of the Baptist Community in light of the horrific tragedy which took place at the First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, Texas. No one would expect tragedy within a Church but these are difficult, confusing times. May God have mercy on the Community of First Baptist and may God show Mercy to all of us.

November 18 is the day the Church celebrates the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. The Basilica of St. John Lateran is the cathedral of Rome. This is not St. Peter's, but it is the Pope's cathedral. Also called the Church of Holy Savior or the Church of St. John Baptist, it was the baptism church of ancient Rome. It was built in the time of Constantine and was consecrated by Pope Sylvester in 324. This feast became a universal celebration in honor of the basilica called "the mother and mistress of all churches of Rome and the world" (omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput) as a sign of love for and union with the See of Peter.
