

So comes November 'till the last leaf has fallen and the pumpkins are covered in frost. The harbinger of Winter, the forecaster of snow, the chilling reminder of cold, North winds and the ritual foretelling that all is not to be lost in November darkness and cold. Look to this eleventh month as She meticulously arranges for all that is to follow: the newness that lies in wait beneath her blanket of snow-covered leaves amid the crisp days of anticipation for the wondrous Season of Joy!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 15, 2020

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God has entrusted his possessions to us. God's possessions are not earthly, physical things like ours: a home, bank account, personal items, and so forth. God's possessions are far greater and deeper. God's greatest possession is His very Self and it is precisely this pearl of great price that He bestows freely upon us. What are we going to do with it? Nourishing the fruits of wisdom is of the first order in determining how we are going to use what God have given. Understanding that His gift has not been given purely for our self-benefit is another. Wisdom asks us to broaden our horizons to embrace all avenues of human life, including the needs of the poor, the marginalized, and the needy. Manifested primarily in the virtues of faith, hope, and love, what God has entrusted to us can multiply exponentially if we invest His gift wisely and reap the greatest benefits. While it requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work, we will experience tremendous joy when we realize just how much confidence God has in us. Not acting on something out of fear or lack of trust serves no purpose and is of no use to either God or ourselves.

"...you are all children of light and children of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness ..."

From the 2nd reading
Paul to the Thessalonians

Thanksgiving Mass will be held on Wednesday, November 25th at 7 p.m. There will be no Mass that day at 11 and no Mass on Thanksgiving morning or Friday. The past few years have taught us that there are so many meal & family preparations to tend to on Thanksgiving morning and Wednesday evening works better. This is the second year that we are doing this. No Mass on Friday following the holiday!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer:

Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

The virus has affected every part of our lives including Liturgical. Since the church 'reopened' there are still many of our Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and Ushers who have not returned yet. That means that those who have returned and feel safe are often assigned every weekend. Please, if you are a Eucharistic Minister and have witnessed our safety precautions let Marty know when you are ready to return. If you are a Lector or would like to be a Lector or Usher please let Lisa know in the Parish Office. We extend this invitation especially to the young people –who are in a more safe bracket. We need young people and young adults to bring their vibrancy and enthusiasm to these ministries.

HELP WANTED

Dear Parish Family,

On to Thanksgiving! In 1863 President Lincoln declared that Thanksgiving would be held on the last Thursday of November. In this case it will be November 26—a little late in the month but nevertheless the more official holiday kick-off and a day to celebrate family and Nation. In 1941 Congress determined that it would be a National Holiday and so we will come together to remember the harvest feast which calls for gratitude and appreciation of all that makes us Family, Friends, Americans and Christian/Catholics. There is always something to be thankful for even in the midst of COVID, disappointments, hardships, even sickness. God has blessed us in so many ways and perhaps Thanksgiving is best celebrated by being grateful for the people or things that we most take for granted. AS you plan for your holiday—however it is that you will celebrate it—recall that God is the source of all goodness and bounty. God is love and God has a unique and personal love for us individually and collectively as His People!

As we near a vaccine against the COVID, we are, as a staff, meeting to discuss the coming holidays. I will never forget celebrating Easter 2020 in an empty Church being live-streamed and hoping that somehow the wonder and awesome power of the Resurrection of Jesus was flowing from the Church into your homes and hearts. What a tough time it was for all of us. We are now a bit more hopeful that we can arrange a Christmas schedule that will safely accommodate our people and add to the Yuletide Festivities! Keep hoping and praying! We will keep you updated.

Know that we have not eased up on sanitizing the church, the rest rooms, the doors etc. As pastor I am between a rock and a hard place when it comes to masks. The Governor still sets the standard. I cannot force someone to wear a mask as I do NOT know their intentions or health situation. I believe our parish has been more than cooperative in this matter and it is my hope that you will continue to look out for both your welfare and those around you. I am more than grateful to the ushers who get the brunt of it....all of us are doing our best to keep the church sanitized and safe.

I pray your week is blessed. Open your hearts to the love of Jesus Christ. We approach the end of the Church Year and will soon celebrate Christ the King—the solemnity which concludes the Church Year. Be ready to proclaim Him as your Lord and Savior and Ruler of the Universe. Fr. Krizner, the Lily, Grace & Cotton!

You are our refuge and our strength, O Lord!

The Daughters

of St. Colette

Thank you to everyone who ordered pie and strudel! Pickup will be next weekend, Nov. 21st and 22nd. Drive-thru pickup is available. Cars will drive from north to south in the driveway in front of the church hall. Members of Celebration will take your name and bring your pies and strudels out to your car. No need to even leave your car. If you are picking up after Mass, you may go downstairs to the church hall to get your order, or drive up. Either way, your delicious pastries will be ready and waiting.

Pickup times are:

Nov. 21st: 2:00-4:00, also after Mass.

Nov. 22nd: after all Masses

The sale is a joint effort of DOSC, Holy Name Society, and Celebration Youth Group.

Many thanks to all DOSC members who have paid your $5 dues for 2021. Those who haven't paid yet, please place your dues in the collection basket, clearly marked for DOSC, or leave it at the office.

Thank you!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Buried in Your Backyard

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried 25 years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others many years later the trends of the day and how student life was at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone — the current students as well as those now grown — laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those 25 years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to Him and those around us for His glory. As time has passed, hopefully we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard, we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don't need to find a shovel.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer Ministry

comes together for those who are ill in the parish and among our families. Our next gathering is Thursday, November 19th at 7pm.

You are always welcome!

Another quote from St. Pope John Paul II
“Christ came to bring joy: joy to children, joy to parents, joy to families and to friends, joy to workers and to scholars, joy to the sick, joy to the elderly, joy to all humanity. In a true sense joy is the keynote of the Christian message and the recurring motif of the Gospels....be messengers of joy.”

A warm Welcome to our Parish!
