GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 8, 2020

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When doing student report cards, there was a comment the teacher could choose that read: inattentive and easily distracted. Could that comment describe your spiritual life? We can become so consumed with myriad distractions and preoccupations and lose our connection to what is really significant and important. We can become dull. This happens in our human relationships, too. We can easily take the love of others for granted, whether it be a parent, spouse, friend, or a child. We assume and presume that their love will always be there and do very little to cultivate, rejuvenate, and deepen it. Presumption can become a great sin.

We do the same thing with God and our spiritual lives. We presume that God will be merciful. Because we believe that in the end God is going to forgive us anyway, then why put a lot of effort into things now? What's the point? It's far easier to find a comfortable spot, curl up and take a nap! There is no immediate urgency to staying awake and attentive, so we think, and we simply fly by the seat of our pants. Assuming and presuming too much about our relationships, especially our relationship with God, can lead to neglect and abuse. It can even lead to a sense of entitlement, where we actually believe that something is due us without much effort on our part.

Folks who are distracted and preoccupied can find their relationships, especially the primary ones, drifting away. You can actually be married to someone for many years and wake up one morning realizing that you really do not know them or truly recognize them. We have to desire God in order to recognize God. We have to open our hearts, minds, and souls to His Presence so that we can be rejuvenated and refreshed. But we cannot do this if we are distracted or napping. We have to be awake and alert! As a young child eagerly watches for and anticipates that arrival of their parent home, so too we must watch for God's presence. If the anticipation of God's arrival does not excite us and rouse us, then we need to ask why. The wise person keeps vigilant watch, knowing that in the end they will not be disappointed.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you consider yourself spiritually mature and awake? We can become a little presumptuous in the Christian life and even put a little too much stock in God's mercy. We foolishly believe that in the end, God is going to give everyone a passing grade and all will be well. Therefore, until that time comes, I can remain mediocre in my faith disciplines and put aside the effort needed to go from okay to excellent. We can be accomplished procrastinators! The meeting of God face-to-face either when we die or when Christ comes again, whichever comes first, is not going to be as casual as we may think. There is no earthly meeting in our experience that can even compare to what it will be like to meet God. To say that we are going to be caught up in awe is an understatement. But, there is something even more significant than that to consider: If we haven't learned how to be attentive, recognize, and long for the holy of holies in this life, what make us think we are going to recognize and desire it in the next? Pray for the wisdom to act prudently.

“You are rewarded not according to your work or your time but according to the measure of your love.”

-St Catherine of Sienna

To the people who took the time and effort (and expense) to host our Trunk or Treat. You braved the cold and were the delight to the kids who showed up. In these COVID days we wanted to offer a safe alternative and you made it happen! Thank You All so very, very much! Because we were never sure it would happen we were remiss on total advertising and yet it Happened!!!

A Prayer for our Veterans

Father, bless our veterans and all who serve our nation defending our freedom.

For those who bravely gave their lives, grant them eternal rest.

For those who are serving, give them courage.

For those who served, we offer our gratitude.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

We

honor the Veterans of our parish and our families with gratitude and esteem. Your service to our Nation is a service to each and every citizen of our country. Your sacrifice, your dedication and your fidelity is a living example for all who appreciate, honor and love America!

Thank You to the men and women of the Armed Forces.

Mass intentions

We will be opening the 2021 Mass book with a few changes.

With PSCF the entire building is used on Monday and Tuesdays. We will no longer offer a Tuesday Evening Mass.

In order to allow everyone who wishes to have a Mass said there has to be some limits. The book will be opened to schedule Mass from January 1 to June 30, 2021. We will continue the book at a later date.

With new members to our parish on a regular basis we want to afford everyone an opportunity for a Mass intention. Thank you for understanding.

Mass on Saturdays is at 4; Mass on Sunday is at 8, 10, 11:45

(at present) Mass during the week is Wednesday and Friday at 11 a.m. unless there is a funeral.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil;

may God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,

by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Prayer for Deceased Loved Ones by Saint Ignatius of Antioch

Receive in tranquility and peace, O Lord, the souls of your servants who have departed this present life to come to you. Grant them rest and place them in the habitations of light, the abodes of blessed spirits. Give them the life that will not age, good things that will not pass away, delights that have no end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LITTLE CHRISTMAS VILLAGE!

Last weekend we included in the bulletin the details of the Christmas Village visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus. See our website for all the information you may have missed. CDC standards will be followed and Reservations are an absolute must. Call Sara for details.

SEASON'S OF HOPE

(A prayerful support group for the Bereaved)

Seasons of Hope is an opportunity for those who are grieving to gather and share their pain in a prayerful environment. Our next Seasons of Hope will begin on Thursday, November 12 at 10:30am. We will be meeting in the cry room. (This room is quite large now and allows for social distancing) If you or someone you know is struggling and could benefit from a loving community who understands, you are encouraged to call Lisa at the Parish Office to register. 330.273.5500.

ATTENTION ALL SENIORS AND OUR SENIOR CHRISTIAN TRAVELERS

ALL SENIORS ARE INVITED TO A SPECIAL MORNING OF GRATITUDE ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH BEGINNING AT 9:30AM. WE WILL MEET IN THE CHURCH (SOCIAL DISTANCING OF COURSE) SPEND A LITTLE TIME ENJOYING BEING TOGETHER (FOR SOME OF US IT HAS BEEN A LONG, LONG TIME) DO SOME REFLECTING AND OF COURSE COME TOGETHER IN PRAYER. THE MORNING WILL CONCLUDE WITH THE 11AM MASS.

DUE TO SOCIAL DISTANCING GUIDELINES WE WILL ONLY BE ABLE TO ACCOMMODATE 100 PEOPLE. PLEASE CALL THE PARISH OFFICE TO MAKE YOUR RESERVATION.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS

In Our Midst

One day my son came downstairs in our house and went into the kitchen to get himself a bowl of cereal. He had no idea I was in the front room quietly reading something on my smartphone. He poured his milk and reached to grab a spoon. At that moment, I simply said, “Hello.” Startled, he jumped back from the silverware drawer and let out a scream. He would tell this story differently, but it certainly was a scream. He clutched his chest as if he had just seen a ghost. All I wanted to do was say hello.

We have all been startled by someone when we thought we were all alone. Sometimes that person in our midst was simply quiet and hidden from our view. Other times, we simply have our head and mind in the clouds to the point we are ignoring the fact we are not alone.

At times that person we don't see is Jesus. He might seem quieter some days, but he should never be hidden from our view. He is always there with us, in others, and sharing our everyday moments. When we fail to see him in our midst, it is easy to act in ways we wouldn't if we saw him directly in front of us. We become less giving and more self-centered. No one wants to be surprised one day when suddenly they realize they were not alone, especially if the one who startles us is our God.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
