

Goodbye
Summer
Hello
Autumn

Autumn begins on Tuesday, September 22

Fall ends on Monday, December 21

Almighty and Eternal God, Father of all creation, we come with gratitude before you for the summer that has now passed. Amid the difficulties we have experienced because of the virus we have, never the less, enjoyed days of sunshine and rest, relaxation and summer peace. Grace these days ahead that our Autumn may bring a deeper realization of Your hand at work in the changing of seasons. Bring us peace and bless our earth that we might be made worthy of Your endless love and Your many mercies. Amen

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If I work for five hours, I expect to get paid for five hours. If I work for two, I expect to get paid for two. What if we worked for a company that paid everyone the same amount regardless of how long they worked? How would we feel going home with the same pay for working eight hours as my co-worker did for working only two hours? Secular wisdom would have a huge problem with this and a visit to the Labor Board would quickly pursue. But this is God's wisdom and God's ways.

We sometimes think that if we pray more, better, or more fervently and go over and above with the practice of our faith, God will somehow reward us and present us with some kind of merit badge. We are so wrong. Spiritual practices have only one true purpose: to deepen our love for God. In deepening our love for God, we also increase our ability to see God's presence around us, living life more purposefully and contemplatively. What if God chooses to treat someone who has come on the scene of faith later in life the same as someone who has devoted their whole lives to it? Does it really matter? If we have the merit badge notion of faith, we can find ourselves feeling a little arrogant and even jealous of folks who have not followed the same path that we have. We can even see ourselves as the privileged few who have a corner on the faith and fully possess it.

That thinking doesn't square with God. God is all about mercy in abundance and is ready to take anyone to himself regardless of when they come. He is only happy that they have come home and delights in their return. After all, if you really and truly love someone, does it matter what they will give you in return or what you receive as a benefit? If relationships were assessed based upon productivity, they would lack authentic love. We invest too much self interest in our prayer and neglect to see it as an opportunity to pursue our Lover and deepen the intimate bond we have with God.

When we breathe our last, all that is of consequence is union with God. If my love for God is real, I am going to want to live the Gospel, abide by the commandments, practice my faith, forgive and love my neighbor, and care for the environment, regardless of how much time it takes or benefits me. We want God to think and behave as we do, and in doing so, we set ourselves up for disappointment. God has a totally different agenda and that's okay.

LIVE THE LITURGY—INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Think for a moment about the most special person in your life. Why do you love them? Many people will answer that question noting character traits they admire about the person, pointing to an indescribable compatibility that exists and describing a deep sense of connection and intimacy or even a sense of rightness about the relationship. In relationships that are authentic and true, rarely are the personal benefits gained from the relationship noted as motivating factors for its pursuit. If we truly love someone we do so simply because it is right and good to do so and not for some other self-serving reason. Why do you love God? The sense of happiness and the gift of mercy that come from that relationship are God's to give, regardless of when in life we come to Him. God's ways are different than ours. ©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC
LIFE EXPLAINED

Good and Evil

Question:

If God is good, why is there evil in the world?

Answer:

The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!

LPi

Please take Note:

Beginning in October we will no longer have a Tuesday Evening Communion Service or Mass. On Tuesdays the entire hall, atrium and church will be used for PSR. Because we must keep social distance the very workings of the parish must bend to the needs of the safety of our students and teachers. We cannot risk parking situations between PSR and a Service in Church—as both would be happening at the same time. Yes, these are unusual circumstances but until our new building is completed we must work with what we have. Again, the prime concern that we have is the safety of our children within a safe environment. Please understand.

HOWEVER, in October (only October) Deacon Tom will be conducting a Holy Hour for Peace, Understanding and Cooperation in our Nation—a prayer for America! This will be on Wednesdays at 7pm. We encourage you to join us as each week will be a specific intention for the welfare of our country and those who serve the needs of its citizens.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer Group will continue to meet as their times will be announced in the bulletin and from the pulpit.

Please understand that ‘change’ is sometimes difficult but ‘trust’ that we are doing the best for the parish.

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

Poor Clare Colettine Nuns of Ohio are an order of cloistered nuns who follow the rule of St. Colette (Rocky River Dr., Cleveland).

If you have any prayer needs you can reach them by going to their website:

pcc-cle.org. Click on HOME and you can place your prayer requests there.

Dear Parish Family,
The picture is the SUN not the moon. As the sun was setting on September 14 it appeared white against a dark sky. Listening to the news I found out it was the smoke in the upper atmosphere from the wildfires out west! Imagine that!

Pray for those affected in so many ways by the wildfires!

I am grateful to all who assisted with our 9/11 Ceremony. I also am very grateful for the donations that so many of you left ...we will be sending $1,000.00 to the family of the Police Officer who was murdered in Cleveland and buried on 9/11. Thank you once again for your kindness.

As we enter a new season under the rule of COVID I hope that it will be a time of blessing for you and for all of us! Please remember all those who have asked our prayers and those who need the healing touch of our Lord. May your week be graced and may you experience the love and mercy of God in new and wonderful ways!

God's love is without end and His mercy is boundless. In the midst of a difficult world it is good to remember that His Love for you is personal—God knows us by name.

YOUR MERCIES ARE BOUNDLESS< O LORD!

The Daughters of St. Colette

Although our projects have been postponed temporarily, we are still active and wait patiently for the time when we can return to our meetings, luncheons, guest speakers, community outreach activities, and much more! We keep in touch through email and text messages, continually receiving requests for prayers and notices about funerals for parish members.

At this time of year, we welcome new members and renew current members. Dues are only $5 per year and Honorary membership (no dues) is granted to those born in 1941 or earlier. Current members, please put your dues in an envelope with your name on it and drop it off at the church office or place it in the collection basket, clearly marked for DOSC. Applications for new members are available at the church office or can be obtained by calling Lillian Morisky at 216-534-1948 or emailing Eileen at eileensykora@gmail.com

As long as the weather holds out, everyone is welcome to join us when we say the Rosary together at Wayside Shrine on Thursdays at 10:00am.

“Come as a stranger, leave as a friend.”

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Be Sure to Look the Part

I used to coach my oldest son in soccer when he was younger. As he got older, he would go to tryouts for select and high school teams. I was no longer the coach, but I always shared with him one piece of advice before any tryout: Be sure to look the part. I told him that if he showed up looking like a soccer player, there was an increased chance of him being seen as a soccer player. If he showed up looking like a kid that plays soccer in video games as opposed to the real thing, he might not be taken seriously. As he grew older, that same advice was then applied to getting a job. It's advice I have heeded myself all my life. You can even say it is like another common phrase: “Fake it till you make it.”

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we certainly do not want to fake it, but we do need to look the part. The world looks at those of us who proclaim to be Christians to see if there is anything to this way of life. If they see us looking and acting like people transformed by Jesus Christ, they will be more likely to take Christianity seriously. If they look at us and see nothing different, then they can easily conclude that there is nothing different about Jesus Christ. He just becomes simply another religious figure of history. Can the world see the power of Christ in you? How will do you look the part?

50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration at St. John's Cathedral

The coronavirus pandemic, as with all other diocesan events, has greatly disrupted our plans. At this time, bringing together couples celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary is not possible. However, we do not want the year to pass by without marking this very special occasion. To honor all couples married in 1970, we would like to send a diocesan certificate as a keepsake. You can order your keepsake certificate by going to the link below.

If circumstances change and make it possible for us to safely gather for a Mass to celebrate the 50th anniversary of couples married in 1970, we will then notify all those who completed the diocesan form.

Here is the form: <https://www.dioceseofcleveland.org/offices/parish-life/marriage-and-family-ministry/marriage/50th-wedding-anniversary-celebration>
