

And on the evening of September Eleventh, 2001, we sat mesmerized before our televisions. We were numb with disbelief, our hearts teetered between sadness and fear. America had been savagely attacked—New York City, Washington DC. the fields of Pennsylvania... Men, women and children's lives were violently taken while other men and women became instant heroes and became beacons of hope in the dark, smoldering skies. On that night we promised:

JOIN US THIS FRIDAY AT 7PM TO HOLD
FAST TO OUR PROMISE & TO LOVINGLY
Remember....

September Eleventh, 2001, was an absolutely beautiful late summer's day. The skies were blue with huge, soft white clouds. Labor Day was behind us and the promise of Fall was ahead. We went to work, went to school, went about our ordinary daily tasks. Of course we did—why would we do otherwise....

but then the skies were darkened...

You're Invited

Dear Parish Family,

2020 has been a most remarkable experience! It will certainly go down in the annals of our memories as one of the more difficult periods of our lives. Yet somehow in all of the uncertainty there have been lessons taught and lessons learned. Who would not agree that in these past months we have realized in so many ways how precious life is and how treasured health must be. If these days have brought us closer to one another then that is the silver lining over dark, covid clouds. We have experienced and endured (in some cases) a Spring and a Summer as we approach the coming Autumn. We pray and we hope that soon a vaccine will be provided and some normalcy can return to our lives. We hope and we pray!

At present so much of America has been disrupted by turmoil and tragedy. It is difficult to watch the news which has left me (at least) in total disbelief that there is so much irreverence, disrespect, and vulgarity. When will it end? What solutions will be found? How many more lives will be taken and cities destroyed? How can it be that in the midst of a world-wide pandemic such unrest can add to the plague that America must endure?

And now we come to 9/11. What we thought was the great tragedy that would unite Americans has been faded out by the upheaval that has now rocked our Nation. We need to REMEMBER....we need to come together in Prayer! We need to place before Almighty God the promise of America and to seek TOGETHER His Blessings. Please join us on Friday, September Eleventh at 7 p.m. There will be room in the church, the atrium, even the parish hall. Come and pray with us.

We will be honoring all the members of the Police Force and First Responders and Military who join us (retired and active) with a special presentation to a World War II Veteran and a Veteran of the Korean War.

Be assured that the entire building will be sanitized before our Prayer Service.

God Bless the United States of America and may peace reign ! Fr. Krizner opportunity to say thank you to the many people who keep the parish running—the Office Staff, the Maintenance Crew, the Ushers, the Eucharistic Ministers, the Lectors, the Sacristans, the volunteers who do whatever and whenever is needed, to the Music Ministers, to the altar servers, to the PSCF teachers and aides, to the volunteers who have tended to our yard, to the friends who have brought in snacks and treats for the office staff, to the Board Members of our parish groups, to the people who pray for us and for those who are ill, to all who have done something or other to keep the parish growing and loving and in the Peace of Christ—to the priests who assist us and to those ‘far away’ who pray for us! And to those who support us in so many ways!

THANK YOU ALL!

Anoint my projects, ideas, and energy,
so that even my smallest accomplishment
may bring You glory.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It's all about reconciliation and conversion, not punishment. Relationships are not static adventures but wonderful gifts that continue to develop, grow, change, and mature. We are meant to be social beings, so isolating ourselves from others is rarely helpful. But, because human beings are on the one hand tremendously gifted, talented, and blessed creations, they are on the other also flawed, broken, and sinful. We all need to humbly admit that we are works in progress and not only capable of enriching each other's lives but causing deep hurts and wounds as well. Hence, we always need to be reconciled. We are always growing, changing, and expanding our knowledge of who we are and how we are meant to share life together.

Because reconciliation and conversion are always part of the mix of life, honesty is crucial. Without honesty, we can easily find ourselves living a lie and causing more harm than good. Being able to freely share our feelings, especially those involving pain and hurt, is a charism necessary to pursue and an art to learn. When we are wronged or wrong someone else, we do not enjoy the confrontation that can and needs to come. We are taught to keep our feelings to ourselves, especially when they are negative, and we tend to avoid difficult conversations. Hence, we never really learn how to confront another, successfully resolve conflict, find reconciliation, and welcome conversion. When we hurt or wrong someone, it does not mean that we are a bad or sinful person who deserves only punishment and excommunication. Quite the opposite! We are simply a human person who can make poor choices and sin and can be forgiven. We can restore and deepen the relationship that has been affected and find our way home again.

Jesus clearly wants to avoid shame because it has no purpose in achieving reconciliation and conversion. All broken relationships deserve a chance at reconciliation. Every person has room for growth and a need for conversion. We have to learn to be okay with honesty and not be afraid to hear and process what someone needs to say, even if it is difficult for us to hear. Severing a relationship, both personally or with the church community as a whole, ought to definitely be a last resort and only pursued when all else has failed.

NOTE

We will continue to stream our Masses live on Saturday at 4 and on Sunday at 8 and 10 . We will not be streaming Mass at 11:45. As the congregation continues to grow we are taking the opportunity to ‘cut down’ on some of the work hours and prep that goes into live streaming. Remember that the Masses streamed remain on line. The number of people actually attending Mass is growing each week. We are all looking for some normalcy and we hope that you find it in ‘church’.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It is not easy to confront someone who has wronged or hurt us. But it is absolutely necessary to do so in order for reconciliation to occur. We are taught to mind our own business and keep our thoughts to ourselves. When we have been hurt or wronged and we do not acknowledge and give voice to it, those feelings of hurt remain in our hearts and can eventually turn into anger. Verbalizing our feelings can diffuse them, and communicating how we actually feel brings honesty to our relationships. This is the only way that the path of love can remain open and that integrity and mutual respect can be maintained. It is no wonder that Jesus absolutely insisted upon healthy and compassionate confrontation. People don't always realize that they are doing harm. Bringing this to light is not only good for the one who is hurt but for the one who caused the pain. The new insight and revelation may prevent the action from being repeated again.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

“For the peace from above,
for the loving-kindness of God,
and for the salvation of our souls,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.”

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Blessing of the Community

I have been blessed to be a member of my parish community for 28 years. For much of that time I was serving as a member of the parish staff, but it was still the community that I call home. I have been fortunate to be able to remain in that parish even as my life has encountered new chapters and callings. I am so grateful to God that I have been able to grow, be nourished, and find companionship in a parish for this long of a time.

It is a natural tendency for human beings to desire belonging to something bigger than themselves. Not everyone is fortunate enough to find the community, big or small, that fulfills that need. Unfortunately, that means that many communities suffer from not having the benefit of the gifts, skills, and talents that any member can offer. Communities are in many ways living organisms that move and breathe based upon the individuals who form that body. A community is truly the sum of its parts.

Your parish community reflects you and everyone else in that community. The more each member gives to the community, the stronger that community finds itself. If you hold back, your community suffers, and you gain little. I know firsthand what being a part of a community can mean to a person. I would be no one at all – and you would not be reading this – if it weren't for the life I have had in my parish community.
