

Hello

August

GOOD MORNING!

GOOD AFTERNOON!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Many people in our world are hungry and thirsty. This hunger and thirst go well beyond physical needs for food, security, and shelter. Many are emotionally and spiritually parched, too. Behind every act of violence is a soul who hungers. People live with relationships that actually starve them. They are abused, exploited, disrespected, laughed at, and marginalized. There is a lot of confusion and inner pain that needs to be acknowledged and expressed. We all long to be understood and loved, even when our inner demons or who I am make it difficult to be. Do you live with inner confusion and pain? Folks often wander through life without any real direction or purpose and take their cues from what seems satisfying or popular at the moment. The deeper dots of our lives can easily remain unconnected, and we can find ourselves without grounding, purpose, or real happiness. Life becomes shallow and without real purpose as we hunger and thirst for an ultimate love.

It's easier to see the physical hungers and thirsts. We try to respond to these as best we can. Much more needs to be done. With all that God's earth can provide, nobody ought to face sleep at night with a belly that's empty. It's sinful. It's unjust. But isn't all hunger unjust? It doesn't need to be, and it should not be. Just as no one ought to be physically hungry and thirsty, there is really no need to be emotionally or spiritually deficient either. If we have more privileges at our fingertips, it is easier to try to satisfy our emotional and spiritual hungers and thirst by acting on impulse or self-indulgence, carelessly following passions, or by seeking self-destructive ways to dull the ache of emptiness.

Folks need to know where to look for nourishment and need the right friends to help them find it. We may not think that we have enough to respond to and to satisfy all of the needs, but we do. It doesn't take much. Five loaves and two fish provided for a huge crowd. With God, all things are possible. Our faith provides the direction for where God's children must go to find the nourishment they seek. It also tells us how to structure life so that justice and equity can be a reality for all. It also tells us how to respond to pain, sinfulness, and confusion. Come to the water and then help another get there.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Sunday Mass

Question:

Why do Catholics need to go to Mass every Sunday?

Answer:

The heart of the Church's instruction that we are to attend Mass on Sundays goes back to the Third Commandment: "Take care to keep holy the sabbath day as the LORD, your God, has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12). Although the Jewish People celebrate the Sabbath on Saturday, the first generations of Christians began to observe the sabbath on Sunday, recognizing how important it is for Christians to celebrate the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults observes, "Sunday extends the celebration of Easter throughout the year ... It makes present the new creation brought about by Christ" (364).

The focus of our Sunday should be the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass. This is our time to be formed by God's Word and nourished at the table of the Lord, becoming prepared to live out and share our faith in the week that follows. In his encyclical, Dies Domini, Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us that Christians "cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly" (no. 81). This is why the Church teaches us that Sunday Mass is a non-negotiable part of being a Christian (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2192).

Beyond being a time of worship, we should also remember that Sunday is intended to be a day of rest, when we make time for recreation, for sharing meals, and enjoying the company of friends and family. Sunday is given to us as a day to take stock of and enjoy the blessings that God has given us (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2187). Pope Francis reminds us, "The day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor" (Laudato Si', no. 237).

DOG DAYS

An August Message from Lily and Grace.....

So they tell us it is August and usually one of the hottest days of summer. But as we recall we have already been through a good number of hot days—humid, dry, uncomfortable days unless you are a Portuguese Water Dog or a Labrador Retriever or a water Spaniel with a built in pool or your own personal pond. For us it is the air-conditioner in the Office—lying on the open floor vent and listening to the Office Staff complain that ‘for some reason their office is warm’.

We are Beardies—we will go out into 90 degree weather if you give us a few sheep to herd or a flock of geese to chase but otherwise we’re ready for another winter of cold, snow, and below 90 degrees weather. But being Church dogs we will ‘offer up’ being uncomfortable until November!

The real question is where did the Spring and Summer go?

The answer: behind Masks and six feet from everyone else with the smell of sanitizer everywhere you go!

Sometimes it is really good to be a four legged creature of God!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What do you really hope and hunger for? We are most familiar with our physical hungers and cravings as they are quite obvious. What we don't always realize is that we also have emotional and spiritual hungers. Many are starving for acceptance and love. Many others hunger for a sense of purpose, more focused direction, and deeper connection and meaning. Our hungers can easily get confused. We think we are in need of one thing but are actually being driven by another. We need to recognize and pursue our spiritual hungers. If we do not do so, we will attempt to fill these needs with lesser, and not always healthier, things. God, ultimately through the Eucharist, is the only One who can quench our more profound thirsts. Have we discovered this yet?

You, O Lord, are the Bread of Life, Bread of Angels, Bread come down from Heaven. Fill my soul, O Living Lord, that I may become that which I receive!

Thank You to Stan Joswick who took the time and dedication to redo, repair, and paint the stations of the Cross at our Shrine. They were in need of some TLC and you provided it so well! Thank You, Stan (again)

Thank you to the crew that is waxing our pews. The sanitizer has done a job on the pews and we have been concerned that we would need to repair or replace them. Ed Phal managed to find a wax that restores them and returns their original finish. THANKS to Ed Pfahl, Dusty & Patty Shell, and Jim & Gerald Aust.

A reminder' Tuesday at 7 pm Deacon Tom conducts a Communion Service with a Liturgy of the Word. Following the service the Perpetual Help Group meets at the Shrine (weather permitting) to pray for those who are ill and an end to COVID. You are always welcomed to join them. Join us with your intentions. The next will be August 11, 2020

Dear Parish Family,

The sunset behind the woods throughout the month of August and beyond are truly awesome. The sky seems to become a messenger of God's great love poured out in a color pallet that can't be matched! Even in the midst of a world turned upside down there is a peace unmatched in the skies—a touch of heaven and a reminder of His awesome but gentle Presence. As this summer moves forward be sure to take in the beauty in the change of the seasons. There is always something anew to see and experience. How wonderful is the handiwork of the Father.

We are working hard on providing a schedule for PSCF with the utmost care to assure that we provide a safe environment for our students and staff. We have had several meetings and several conference calls with Mr. & Mrs. Pizon. There are far more details involved in this procedure than what we had expected. For certain there will be some major changes as we make use of every available safe afforded to us within the confines of the building. We are approaching this with the welfare of our children and the safety and well-being of all involved with PSR. Look for a registration form via the bulletin and the web site within the coming days. Be patient with us we are in the same dilemma that the public schools are in.

Remember those who have asked our prayers and those who have turned to the Lord for healing, wholeness, direction and comfort. May these days of August be days of blessing for all of us!

Danish with Daughters!

On Thursday, August 20th at 9:00am we are having a special treat for our members. DOSC is purchasing pre-wrapped Danish pastries so we can have a little snack and a short get-together at Wayside Shrine before we say the Rosary. This will give us a chance to make a couple announcements and actually see each other! Please bring your own beverage & chair so we can keep to social distance.

Everyone is welcome to join us at 10:00 for the Rosary!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Power of a Simple Action

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, “I haven’t been this happy in some time.” Imagine the joy that relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

Remembering with Love....

Our loving prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to the families of Donald Boggs (husband of Judith) and Charles Castrigano (husband of Janice) who were called to their Eternal reward. Please pray for them and all the faithful departed.

Live in Light & Peace!

Just what you need....

We all need a day of hope and inspiration!!! Join us next Sunday, August 9, 2020 for The FEST@Home. It's going to be an amazing day of faith and family, uplifting music and messages of hope and inspiration all from the comfort of your home. NINE of the top Christian bands/artists (Casting Crowns, for King and Country, Matt Maher and more) are coming together in an extraordinary way to share songs and messages of HOPE and the promise of a better, more loving and peaceful way in Jesus Christ. The FEST@Home is FREE and starts at 3 pm. Bishop Roger Gries will preside at the evening Mass which begins at 8 pm. It's a day of hope....great music....and a chance for all of us to come together (from the comfort of our home). Please invite everyone you know to join you. For a complete schedule of the day and all the details, go to: www.theFEST.us. This special event is coming to you FREE thanks to our wonderful sponsors: Marc's, Dole, Sherwood Foods, and Barons Bus.
